

IZETTA AUTUMN MOBLEY has 10 years' facilitation experience, specializing in youth and diversity issues. She holds a degree in American Civilization from Brown University, where she earned multiple awards for her pioneering leadership. She currently serves as Senior Talent Associate at College Summit (<http://www.collegesummit.org/school-districts/>), which works with schools, school districts and colleges to develop a sustainable model for raising college enrollment rates community-wide, with the aim to ensure that every student who can make it in college makes it to college. She previously served as Associate Director of Programs for the Junior National Young Leaders Conference and has planned, facilitated, and/or presented in conferences on student diversity leadership; race, gender and sexuality; equity and social justice; critical race, gender, and class theory; and youth empowerment, among many other topics.