

DETAILED TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
IN MEMORIAM	xxxix	—
FOREWORD	xxxiii	xxxi
ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF JOHN E. HIGGINS, JR.	xxxv	—
PREFACE	xxxvii	xxxiii

PART I

HISTORY OF THE NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS ACT

CHAPTER 1. Historical Background of the Wagner Act	3	3
I. The Inadequacies of Judicial Regulation	4	—
II. The Rise of Federal Regulation	8	—
III. An Affirmative National Labor Policy: The Ancestry of the Wagner Act	12	—
A. The Erdman Act	13	—
B. The Clayton Act	15	—
C. The Railway Labor Act	19	—
D. The Norris-LaGuardia Act	21	—
CHAPTER 2. The Wagner Act Period	25	3
I. The Role of Senator Wagner	26	—
II. The National Labor Relations Act: The Beginning of an Era	27	—
III. Criticism of the Act: One-Sided Legislation	30	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
CHAPTER 3. The Taft-Hartley Changes	35	3
I. Industrial Unrest and Congressional Response	36	—
A. Union Growth	36	—
B. A Republican Congress	37	—
1. Response to President Truman's Proposals	37	—
2. Problem Areas	38	—
3. Differences Between Senate and House Bills	39	—
C. Presidential Veto	40	—
II. The New Amendments	41	—
A. Employee Rights	41	—
B. Structural Changes in Board Administration	42	—
C. Union Unfair Labor Practices	42	—
D. "Free Speech" Proviso	43	—
E. Collective Bargaining Duties	43	—
F. Representation Under Section 9	44	—
G. Regulation of Internal Union Affairs	45	—
H. Procedural Changes	46	—
I. Injunctions	46	—
J. "Right-to-Work" Laws	47	—
III. The Reaction	47	—
A. Labor Response	47	—
B. Congressional Response	48	—
C. Stalemate Years	49	—
CHAPTER 4. The Landrum-Griffin Changes	51	3
I. The Impetus of Legislative Investigation	52	—
II. The Political Climate	53	—
III. Senate Action	54	—
IV. Struggle in the House	55	—
V. Reconciling Title VII	57	—
A. A Jurisdictional Problem: An "Unregulated Terrain"	57	—
B. The "Hot-Cargo" Provision	58	—
C. Restrictions on Organizational and Recognitional Picketing	59	—
D. Prehire Agreements	59	—
E. Voting Rights for Economic Strikers	60	—
VI. The Conference Committee Version	60	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
A. The Changes	60	—
1. Recognitional and Organizational Picketing	60	—
2. Secondary Boycott Changes	60	—
3. Hot-Cargo Restrictions	61	—
4. Prehire Agreements	62	—
5. Voting Rights for Economic Strikers	62	—
6. Delegation of Board Authority Authorized.	62	—
7. Taft-Hartley Provisions Repealed	62	—
B. Enactment of the Bill	63	—
CHAPTER 5. The Post-Landrum-Griffin Period	65	3
I. Jurisdiction Over U.S. Postal Service	65	—
II. Section 302 Amendments and Additional Bargaining Subjects.	66	—
III. Health Care Institution Amendments	69	—
IV. Court Invalidates Act Giving Religious Conscientious Objectors Exemption From Union-Security Coverage	70	—
V. Unsuccessful Efforts to Amend the Basic Act	71	—

PART II

PROTECTED EMPLOYEE ACTIVITY

CHAPTER 6. Interference With Protected Rights	75	7
I. Overview.	81	11
A. Introduction	81	—
B. Section 7—Rights of Employees	82	11
1. To Form, Join, or Assist Labor Organizations	82	—
2. To Refrain From Such Activities	82	—
3. Other Concerted Activities.	83	11
C. Employer Interference With Section 7 Rights: Section 8(a)(1).	87	12
1. Derivative Violations.	87	—
2. Independent Violations	88	—
3. Motive Not an Essential Element of Section 8(a)(1) Violations	88	12
D. Union Restraint and Coercion— Section 8(b)(1)(A).	90	13

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
1. Not a Derivative Counterpart of Section 8(a)(1)	90	—
2. Nature of the Violation.	91	13
3. Motive Not an Essential Element of Section 8(b)(1)(A) Violations	93	—
E. “Freedom of Speech”—Section 8(c) in General	94	14
1. Threat or Prophecy?	96	14
2. The Outer Limit of Employer Speech.	98	15
II. Organizational and Preelection Activity	100	15
A. In General: Relation of Unfair Labor Practices to “Laboratory Conditions” Required for Elections	100	15
B. Unlawful Employer Conduct	104	16
1. Employer’s Restrictions on Union and Employee Activity on Employer’s Property.	104	16
a. Basic Presumptions	104	16
b. Rights of Employees Over Nonemployees.	105	16
c. No-Solicitation and No-Distribution Rules Generally	107	17
(1) Presumptions of Validity.	108	—
(2) Facial Validity of Rule	109	17
(3) Unlawful Promulgation or Enforcement	114	18
d. Implementation of Rules: Timing as an Element of Legality	115	21
e. Union Buttons and Insignia	117	22
f. “Captive-Audience” Speeches, Conferences, and Interviews	121	24
g. No-Access Rules.	123	24
h. Prohibiting Protected Activity on Private Property Open to the Public	125	24
i. Prohibiting Distribution of Political Materials	132	—
j. Effect of Contractual Waiver of Right to Solicit or Distribute.	134	—
2. Specific Conduct That Violates Section 8(a)(1)	136	25
a. Threats to Withdraw, and Withdrawals of, Benefits	136	25

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
(1) Permissible Predictions and Prohibited Threats	138	25
(2) Futility of Organizing	143	26
(3) Inevitability of Strikes or Violence	145	27
(4) Assessing Recurrent Phrases and Themes	146	28
(a) “Serious Harm”	146	28
(b) “Bargaining Will Start From Scratch”	148	28
(c) Statements Regarding Plant Closings	150	28
b. Promises and Grants of Benefits	152	28
(1) Employer Inducements	154	30
(2) Soliciting or Remedying Employee Grievances	158	30
(3) Withholding Benefits During an Election Campaign	160	31
c. Interrogation and Polling	163	33
(1) Systematic Polling	165	33
(2) Individual or Isolated Questioning	171	36
(3) Preparation of Defense for Trial of Unfair Labor Practice Case	176	38
d. Surveillance and Photographing	178	40
e. Employer’s Responsibility for Third-Party Conduct	184	—
f. Employer Violence	185	41
g. Discipline and Discharge of Supervisors	186	42
3. Other Unlawful Employer Interference	188	42
a. Bonuses or Benefits to Nonstrikers and Strike Replacements	188	—
b. Requests for Employee Statements to the NLRB	190	42
c. Employer Conduct Relating to Authorization Cards	191	43
d. Suits and Threats of Suits Against Employees	193	43
III. Other Concerted Activity	196	44
A. Protected Concerted Activity: In General	197	44

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
1. Individual Versus Concerted Activity: Employee Claim of Right Under a Collective Agreement	197	44
2. Individual Versus Concerted Activity: Employee Claim of Right Under Employment, Safety, and Other Laws	201	46
3. Employee Activity for “Other Mutual Aid or Protection”	207	47
4. Limits on Protection of Concerted Activity	214	50
B. Protected Concerted Activity: Specific Conduct	218	52
1. Work Stoppages	218	52
2. Honoring Picket Lines	222	53
3. Filing or Processing of Grievances	223	53
4. Weingarten : Employee Request or Demand for Union Representation During Investigation	225	54
a. Covered Interviews and Meetings	226	54
b. Rights of Unrepresented Employees	229	55
c. Requesting and Selecting the Union Representative	232	—
d. Role of Union Representative	233	55
e. Remedies for Weingarten Violations . . .	234	—
5. Safety-Related Protests	235	56
6. Protests Relating to Employment Discrimination	238	—
7. Appeals to Agencies and Filing of Court Actions	239	56
C. Limits on Protection of Concerted Activities	241	57
1. Sit-Down Strikes	241	—
2. Partial and Intermittent Strikes	243	57
3. Other Unprotected Activity	244	58
a. Breach of Confidentiality	245	58
b. False Allegations or Affidavits Concerning the Employer	248	59
c. Disparagement of the Employer or Its Business Activities	249	60
d. Disruptive, Profane, or Vulgar Behavior	254	61
IV. Union Restraint and Coercion	256	62

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
A. Section 8(b)(1)(A): Restraint and Coercion of Employees	256	62
1. Not a Derivative Counterpart of Section 8(a)(1)	257	—
2. Fines and Discipline of Union Members	258	62
a. Discipline for Activity That Contravenes a Policy of the NLRA, Including the Filing of NLRB Petitions and Charges	261	63
b. Impact of Discipline on Employment Relationship	264	63
c. The Effect of Resignation on Legality of Discipline	266	65
d. Discipline for Refusal to Engage in Unlawful or Unprotected Activity	271	—
e. Discipline for Intraunion Activity	272	66
f. Reasonableness of Fines Imposed	274	—
3. Violence and Threats	274	66
B. Sections (8)(b)(1)(B) and 8(b)(4)(A): Restraint and Coercion in Selection of Employer Representatives	276	67
1. Interference With the Employer’s Choice of Representatives	276	—
2. Union Discipline of Supervisor-Members	278	67
CHAPTER 7. Discrimination in Employment	285	69
I. Discrimination as an Unfair Labor Practice	286	—
II. Employer Discrimination	289	71
A. Persons Within the Protection of Section 8(a)(3)	289	71
1. Loss of Employee Status Under Section 8(a)(3)	293	73
B. Purpose of the Discrimination	293	73
1. Conduct Requiring Proof of Union Animus: The Wright Line Rule	295	73
a. Refusal to Hire—Salting	306	—
2. Conduct Inherently Destructive of Section 7 Rights	307	75
C. Specific Conduct	328	77
1. Discharge or Discipline for Union Activity	328	77

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
a. Elements of an Unlawful Discharge	329	77
b. Constructive Discharge	331	78
c. Employer’s Knowledge of Employee’s Union Activity	334	78
d. Inferential Proof of Employer’s Animus	337	78
2. Lockouts	343	79
3. Plant Closings	344	81
a. Complete Cessation of Business	344	—
b. Partial Closings	345	81
4. Transfer of Work: The “Runaway Shop”	350	—
5. Replacement and Reinstatement of Economic Strikers	356	83
a. Development of the Law	356	83
b. Nature of the Duty to Reinstatement	359	83
c. Defenses and Limitations	365	85
d. Unfair Labor Practice Striker Reinstatement	369	—
6. Discharge or Discipline of Union Officers for Strikes in Breach of Contract	369	—
7. Discrimination Against Union Organizers and “Salts”	370	88
8. Discrimination Based on Race or Sex	377	—
9. Discrimination Based on Terms of Collective Bargaining Agreement	379	91
a. Enforcement of Union-Security Provision	379	91
b. Compliance with Superseniority Provision	381	—
III. Union Inducement of Employer to Discriminate	383	91
A. Union Inducements as Unfair Labor Practice Prohibited by Section 8(b)(2)	383	91
1. Union Liability Requires Showing of Agency	391	92
B. Violations Relating to Seniority Provisions	394	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
C. Violations Relating to Union-Security Provisions	400	—
1. Introduction and Overview	400	—
D. Violations Relating to Hiring and Referral Halls	401	—
IV. Discrimination Because of Involvement With NLRB Procedures: Section 8(a) (4)	401	93
A. Truth or Falsity of Testimony	402	—
B. Actual Filing of Charge Not Required	404	93
C. Release From Normal Work Schedule	405	93
D. Proof Scheme for Section 8(a) (4) Charges Follows Section 8(a) (3) Charges	406	94
E. Supervisory Protections	410	—
F. Types of Section 8(a) (4) Misconduct	410	95
1. Lawsuits	412	—
CHAPTER 8. Employer Domination of and Assistance to Labor Organizations	417	97
I. Introduction: Section 8(a) (2).	418	—
II. Labor Organization Defined	421	98
A. Requirement of Participation by “Employees”	421	—
B. Requirement of “Dealing With” Employers	423	98
III. Employer Domination.	431	—
IV. Employer Interference	438	98
A. Unlawful Recognition or Other Assistance	438	98
B. Employer Preference Among Contending Unions.	443	100
C. Conduct of Supervisors	446	101
V. The Requirement of Employer Neutrality.	448	102
A. Development of the Requirement: The Rise and Fall of Midwest Piping	449	—
B. When a Union Is Incumbent	453	—
C. When No Union Is Incumbent	455	102
VI. Employer Support Versus Cooperation	456	102
VII. The Union as Party to the Employer’s Domination, Assistance, or Support.	461	103
VIII. Remedies	463	104

PART III

THE REPRESENTATION PROCESS AND UNION RECOGNITION

CHAPTER 9. Restrictions on Preelection Activity:
“Laboratory Conditions”	471	109
I. Introduction	472	111
A. The Board’s Authority Under Section 9	473	111
1. Relation to Unfair Labor Practices	474	—
2. Development of the General Shoe “Laboratory Conditions” Doctrine	475	111
B. Timing of “Laboratory Period”	477	112
C. Considerations in Assessing Objection Allegations [Amended Heading Title]	—	113
1. Substantive [New Topic]	—	113
a. De Minimis or Isolated Conduct [New Topic]	—	113
b. Dissemination [New Topic]	—	114
c. Narrowness of Election Results [New Topic]	—	115
D. Regulating Preelection Conduct by Adjudication Rather Than Rulemaking	482	—
II. Grounds for Setting Aside Elections	483	115
A. Employer and/or Union Conduct	483	115
1. Misrepresentations	483	—
a. Development of the Prior Law Prohibiting Last-Minute Misrepresentations: The Hollywood Ceramics Rule	484	—
b. Hollywood Ceramics Overruled: Voters Allowed to Assess Misrepresentations	486	—
(1) General Knit : A Temporary Return to Hollywood Ceramics	487	—
(2) Return to Shopping Kart : Hollywood Ceramics Again Abandoned	487	—
2. Forged Documents	489	115
3. Misuse of the Board’s Election Process	489	116
a. Reproduction of Board Documents	490	116

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
b. Misrepresentation of Board Action . . .	493	—
c. Electioneering at the Polls	495	117
(1) Electioneering Generally	495	117
(2) The Milchem Rule	496	117
(3) Third-Party Electioneering	497	—
d. Other Conduct In and Around the Polls	498	117
4. Appeals to Racial Prejudice	500	118
5. The 24-Hour Rule Barring Speeches to Massed Employees	505	119
a. Mail Ballots	506	—
b. Paychecks	506	119
B. Employer Conduct	507	119
1. Assembly of Employees at Focal Point of Authority	507	—
2. Home Visits	507	—
3. Voter Eligibility List	508	—
4. Paychecks	508	119
5. Raffles	508	—
6. Videotaping Employees for Employer Campaign	509	—
7. Pro-Union Conduct of a Supervisor	510	120
C. Union Conduct	511	121
1. In General	511	—
2. Specific Promises and Grants of Benefits	512	—
3. Waiver of Initiation Fees	515	121
4. Other Union Conduct	522	123
a. Interrogation	522	—
b. Failure to Disclose Information	522	—
c. Videotaping	523	123
D. Third-Party Conduct	524	—
E. Violence and Threats	530	124
III. Remedies	535	125
CHAPTER 10. Representation Proceedings and Elections . . .	537	127
I. Questions Concerning Representation	540	129
A. Petitions by Labor Organizations and Employees	542	—
1. Showing of Interest	542	—
2. Employer Denial of Recognition	544	—
3. Joint Petitions	545	—
B. Petitions by Employers	545	129
1. History Under the Wagner Act	545	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
2. History Under the Taft-Hartley Act	547	129
a. Unrecognized Unions	547	—
b. Incumbent Unions	549	129
(1) Development of the Law Before the Allentown Mack Decision	549	—
(2) The Allentown Mack and Levitz Furniture Decisions	551	129
(3) Effect of Section 8(f) in the Construction Industry	552	130
3. Disclaimer of Interest	552	—
II. Timeliness of Petitions	555	131
A. The One-Election-per-Year Rule	555	131
1. The Statutory Bar	555	—
2. The Certification Year	556	131
3. Voluntary Recognition Bar	559	132
B. Settlement of Unfair Labor Practice Charges [Amended Heading]	561	133
C. Unlawful Employer Assistance	564	133
D. Fluctuating Work Force	565	—
E. Contract-Bar Doctrine	567	—
1. Requisites of the Contract	567	—
2. Duration of the Contract	569	—
3. Unlawful Clauses	570	—
a. Union Security	571	—
b. Checkoff	572	—
c. Racial/Gender Discrimination	573	—
d. “Hot Cargo”	573	—
4. Expanding Units	573	—
a. Prehire Agreements	574	—
b. Relocation and Consolidation	575	—
c. Purchasers	576	—
5. Accretions	577	—
6. Schism, Defunctness, and Disclaimer	580	—
a. Schism	580	—
b. Defunctness	580	—
c. Disclaimer	581	—
7. Expiration of the Contract Bar: Timeliness	582	—
a. The Open Period	583	—
b. The Insulated Period	583	—
c. After the Terminal Date	584	—
F. Clarification of Units	586	133

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
G. Private Agreements	589	134
1. Agreements Not to Represent Certain Employees	589	—
2. Neutrality Agreements	590	134
III. Election Procedures	590	135
A. Preelection Matters	590	135
1. Types of Elections	591	—
2. Details of the Election	593	—
a. Date	593	—
b. Time	594	—
c. Place	594	—
3. Voter List and Eligibility	594	135
a. The Excelsior List of Eligible Voters' Names and Addresses	594	—
b. Eligibility	598	—
c. Construing Stipulations of the Parties in Representation Cases	606	—
4. Notice of Election	607	—
5. Review of Direction of Election	608	135
B. The Election Proper	610	136
1. Observers	610	136
2. Balloting	612	137
a. The Ballot	612	137
b. Voting	612	137
c. Mail Ballots	612	—
d. Defective Ballots	614	—
3. Challenges	615	—
C. Standards for the Conduct of Elections	618	137
1. The Opportunity to Vote	619	137
2. Conduct In and Around the Polling Areas	622	—
3. The Integrity of the Ballots and the Ballot Box	622	—
4. Conduct of Board Agents	623	—
D. Resolution of Challenges and Objections to the Election	627	138
1. Challenges	627	138
2. Objections to the Election	628	138
3. Resolution of Challenges and Objections	630	—
E. Runoff and Rerun Elections	631	—
F. Certification and Revocation	633	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
CHAPTER 11. Appropriate Bargaining Units	637	139
I. Background	639	142
II. General Factors in Unit Determinations	642	—
A. Community of Interest Among Employees	642	—
B. Extent of Union Organization	644	—
C. Desires of the Employees—The Globe Doctrine	646	—
D. Bargaining History	648	—
E. Employer’s Organizational Structure	649	—
III. Types of Units	650	142
A. Unit Classifications Required by the Act.	650	—
1. Professionals	650	—
2. Guards	653	—
B. Unit Classifications in General	658	142
1. Craft Units	658	142
2. Departmental Units	664	—
3. Plant and Employerwide Units	665	142
4. Single Employer–Joint Employer [New Topic]	—	143
C. Specialized Units.	671	143
1. Units in Health Care Institutions.	671	143
a. Background: The 1974 Amendment to the Act	671	—
b. Development of the Law: Application of Community of Interest Standard and the Eight-Unit Result.	673	—
(1) Physicians, Interns, and Residents	673	—
(2) Registered Nurses	674	—
(3) Other Professionals.	676	—
(4) Technical Employees	677	—
(5) Business Office Clericals.	678	—
(6) Service and Maintenance Employees	679	—
(7) Guards	680	—
c. Development of the Law: Adoption of the “Disparity of Interest” Standard in St. Francis (II)	680	—
d. Development of the Law: The Return to the Eight-Unit Standard—The Board Engages in Rulemaking and the Supreme Court Approves.	682	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
e. Application of the Rule	684	143
f. Units in Nonacute Health Care Institutions	686	—
g. Related Issues	687	143
(1) Single-Facility Versus Multifacility Units	687	—
(2) Prior Bargaining History in the Institution	689	—
(3) Stipulated Units	689	—
(4) Decertification Elections	690	—
(5) Supervisory Determinations	690	143
2. Units in Colleges and Universities	693	144
a. Background	693	—
b. Development of the Law: Basic Structure of Professional Units and the Impact of Yeshiva	694	144
(1) The Unit of All Full-Time Faculty Members	694	—
(2) Development of the Law: Faculty as Managerial and Supervisory Employees— NLRB v. Yeshiva University	695	—
(3) Yeshiva Applied to Faculty	698	144
(4) Other Specific Inclusions and Exclusions	699	145
(a) Department Chairpersons	699	—
(b) “Principal Investigators”	700	—
(c) Administrative Officials	701	—
(d) Program Directors	701	—
(e) Coaches	702	—
(f) Visiting Faculty	702	—
(g) Members of Religious Orders	702	—
(h) Part-Time Faculty	703	145
(i) Librarians	704	—
(j) Research Associates and Assistants	705	145
(k) Graduate Students	705	—
(l) Counselors	706	—
(5) Scope of the Units	706	—
(a) Multicampus Units	706	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
(b) Separate Units for Professional and Graduate School Faculty	707	—
3. Units in the U.S. Postal Service	708	145
a. Background	708	—
b. The Basic Unit	710	—
c. The U.S. Postal Service's Challenge to the Basic Units	711	145
D. Multi-Employer Bargaining Units	712	145
1. The Role of Multi-Employer Units in the Bargaining Process	713	—
2. Establishment of the Multi-Employer Unit: Its Consensual Nature	715	145
3. Dissolution of the Unit	720	—
a. Total Dissolution	720	—
b. Withdrawal After Bargaining Begins	722	—
c. Withdrawal After Impasse: The Bonanno Linen Rule	724	—
4. Scope of the Multi-Employer Unit	727	—
5. Multilevel Bargaining Units	729	—
CHAPTER 12. Recognition and Withdrawal of Recognition Without an Election	731	147
I. Introduction	733	149
II. History	736	—
A. The Practice Under the Wagner Act	736	—
B. The Joy Silk Period	737	—
C. The Gissel Decision	742	—
III. Elements of a Bargaining Obligation in the Absence of an Election	747	149
A. Majority Representation	747	149
1. Form of Designation	748	—
2. Name of Union	749	—
3. Status of the Solicitor	750	149
4. Time of Execution	750	—
5. Authentication	752	150
B. Demand for Recognition in an Appropriate Unit	752	—
C. Employer Unfair Labor Practices	755	150
1. Conduct Warranting a Gissel Bargaining Order	756	150
a. No Per Se Rules	756	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
b. “Hallmark” Violations: Invasive Employer Conduct	757	150
c. Other Specific Employer Unfair Labor Practices	760	151
(1) Threats	760	151
(2) Promise or Grant of Benefits	762	152
(3) Unlawful Efforts to Undermine or Discourage Union Support	763	—
(4) Interrogation	764	152
(5) Other Offenses	764	152
2. Conduct Not Warranting a Gissel Bargaining Order	766	152
D. The Bargaining Order as an Extraordinary Remedy	772	—
1. Where the Employer Does Not Violate Section 8(a) (5)	772	—
2. Where the Employer Commits “Outrageous” Violations But the Union Lacks Proof of Majority Support	774	—
IV. Bargaining Obligation Established by Employer Card Checks, Polls, and Other Independent Means	778	153
V. Defenses to the Remedial Bargaining Order	783	154
A. Union Lack of Majority Status	783	154
1. Timing of the Demand for Recognition	784	—
2. Invalid Authorization	785	154
a. In General	785	—
b. Nature of the Card	786	—
c. Misrepresentations	787	—
d. Coercion and Related Interference	788	—
e. Supervisory Interference	789	154
B. Change of Circumstances	790	155
C. Union Discrimination or Misconduct	794	—
VI. Withdrawal of Recognition	795	156
A. Employee Activity or Inactivity as a Justifying Consideration	802	159
B. Activity or Inactivity by the Union	807	161
C. Filing of Decertification Petition	810	161
D. Bargaining-Unit Factors	812	—
E. Miscellaneous Factors	813	—
1. Union Affiliations	813	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
2. Effect of Section 10(b)	813	—
3. Appropriate Bargaining Unit— The Estoppel Doctrine	814	—
4. Other Defenses	814	—

PART IV

THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING PROCESS

CHAPTER 13. The Duty to Bargain	817	165
I. Introduction	820	168
A. Historical Background	820	—
1. Origin of Concept of Collective Bargaining	821	—
2. The Wagner Act	823	—
3. The Taft-Hartley Amendments: The Statutory Language	824	—
B. Elements of the Bargaining Obligation	825	168
1. The Duty to Meet, Confer, and Negotiate	825	168
2. The Obligation to Deal in Good Faith	827	169
3. The Subjects of Bargaining	829	169
II. Per Se Violations	832	169
A. Unilateral Changes	832	169
B. Bargaining Directly With Employees	845	175
C. Refusal to Execute Written Contract	847	176
D. Refusal to Meet at Reasonable Times	849	176
E. Refusal to Confer	851	—
F. Insisting on Nonmandatory Subjects of Bargaining	851	—
III. The Good Faith Requirement	855	177
A. Totality of Conduct Assessed: General Electric and the Proper Role of the Parties	856	—
B. Indicia of Good or Bad Faith	864	177
1. Surface Bargaining	864	177
2. Concessions, Proposals, and Demands	873	179
a. Concessions	873	179
b. Proposals and Demands	879	179
(1) Contract Duration	886	—
(2) Checkoff	887	—
(3) Management Rights	888	—

DETAILED TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
3. Dilatory Tactics: Refusing to Confer at Reasonable Times and Intervals	891	181
4. Bargaining Representatives	896	181
5. Representative With Inadequate Authority to Bargain	898	182
6. Imposing Conditions	899	—
7. Unilateral Changes	903	182
8. Bypassing the Representative: Individual Contracts of Employment	910	—
9. Commission of Unfair Labor Practices	917	—
IV. The Duty to Furnish Information	920	183
A. The Role of Information in the Collective Bargaining Relationship—An Overview	920	183
1. Bargaining Over New Terms and Conditions	920	—
2. Representation Under an Existing Collective Bargaining Agreement	921	—
3. Refusal to Furnish Information as an Unfair Labor Practice	922	183
4. The Union’s Duty to Supply Information	924	—
B. Nature of the Duty to Furnish Information	925	184
1. Request or Demand	925	184
2. Relevance or Necessity	928	184
3. Availability	937	186
a. Good Faith Effort to Respond to Request	937	186
b. Delay in Providing Information	939	187
4. Manner and Form	940	—
5. Employer Defenses	943	187
a. Claims of Confidentiality or Privilege Based on Employer Interests	944	187
b. Claims of Confidentiality or Privilege Based on Employee Privacy or Protection	950	—
c. Waiver by Union	955	—
C. When the Duty Exists	958	187
D. Information That Must Be Furnished	963	188
1. Financial Information	963	188
2. Other Information	971	189
a. Wages	971	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
b. Hours and Terms and Conditions of Employment	975	189
c. Employee and Customer Information	977	189
d. Strike Replacement Information	979	—
e. EEO Information	980	—
f. Miscellaneous Information Issues	981	—
V. Economic Pressure During Bargaining	983	190
A. Lockout	984	190
B. Responses to Strikes	986	191
VI. Bargaining Impasses	988	193
A. Elements of Impasse	988	193
B. Effect on the Bargaining Obligation	995	195
VII. Defenses and Exceptions: Waiver, Suspension, and Termination of Bargaining Rights.	1006	199
A. Waiver of Bargaining Rights.	1006	199
1. Waiver by Express Agreement	1007	199
a. “Zipper” Clauses	1011	200
b. “Management-Rights” Clauses	1014	200
c. Board Jurisdiction to Construe Collective Bargaining Agreements.	1018	—
2. Waiver by Bargaining History/Past Practice	1019	—
3. Waiver by Inaction	1022	201
B. Suspension During Illegal or Unprotected Activity.	1028	—
C. Union Loss of Majority.	1030	201
VIII. The Construction Industry: Section 8(f)	1036	205
A. History of Bargaining in the Industry and Application of Section 8(f)	1036	—
B. The Deklewa Decision: Binding Section 8(f) Agreements and the Duty to Bargain	1040	205
IX. Notice to Terminate or Modify the Labor Agreement	1046	206
A. Notice Requirements Generally.	1046	206
B. Notice Requirements in the Health Care Industry	1052	207
X. Coalition or Coordinated Bargaining	1057	—
XI. Bargaining During the Term of an Existing Agreement	1061	208
XII. Dual Employer Operations: The “Double-Breasted” Issue	1069	209

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
CHAPTER 14. Effect of Change in Bargaining Representative During the Term of a Collective Bargaining Agreement	1081	213
I. Context in Which the Issue Arises	1081	—
II. Rights and Obligations of New Bargaining Representative and Employer Under Contract With Prior Representative	1083	—
A. Representation Proceedings	1083	—
B. Section 8(a) (5) Proceedings: American Seating	1084	—
C. Right of Superseded Contracting Union	1087	—
III. Mergers and Transfers of Affiliation.	1088	213
A. Due Process.	1089	213
B. Continuity of Representation	1094	214
CHAPTER 15. Effect of Change in the Employing Unit: Successorship	1101	217
I. Scope of the Topic.	1103	—
A. Factual Setting	1103	—
B. A Summary of the Law	1104	—
II. Historical Development	1106	—
A. Early Rulings	1106	—
B. Wiley v. Livingston : Under Section 301 Contract Obligations of Merged Employer Survive the Merger	1109	—
1. Impact of Wiley : The Courts	1111	—
2. Impact of Wiley : The Board	1112	—
C. The Burns Case: Under NLRA, Is New Employer Bound to Prior Employer’s Contract?	1113	—
D. Burns : The Supreme Court’s View.	1115	—
1. The Bargaining Obligation	1115	—
2. The Contractual Obligation.	1116	—
E. Aftermath of Burns	1117	—
F. Howard Johnson : The Triumph of Burns Over Wiley	1118	—
G. Golden State Bottling Co. : Duty to Remedy Predecessor’s Unfair Labor Practices.	1120	—
H. Fall River Dyeing : “Successor” Further Defined	1122	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
III. Successorship and the Bargaining Obligation	1123	219
A. Continuity of the Work Force:
“The Concept of Majority”	1123	219
1. The Applicable Yardstick	1124	219
2. The Appropriate Time for Measuring Majority Status.	1128	219
3. Presumption of the Union’s Continued Majority Status.	1134	—
4. Discriminatory Refusals to Hire Predecessor’s Employees	1147	219
B. Continuity of Identity in the Business Enterprise or Employing Industry.	1153	220
C. Continuity of the Appropriate Bargaining Unit	1161	221
D. The Effect of Hiatus	1170	—
E. Determining When the Bargaining Obligation Attaches	1173	221
IV. Successorship and the Contractual Obligation	1182	226
A. The “Alter Ego” Employer	1182	226
1. Alter Ego Status Compared With Single-Employer Status	1185	226
2. The Defining Factors of the Alter Ego Employer	1188	226
a. The Factor of Common Ownership.	1191	227
b. The Factor of Employer Motive to Evade Labor Obligations	1196	228
3. Alter Ego Status Based on the “Disguised Continuance of the Old Employer”	1202	—
4. Individual Liability: “Piercing the Veil” of the Alter Ego Employer Entity.	1205	228
5. Application of Alter Ego Test in Section 301 Actions and in Arbitration.	1210	229
6. Application of Alter Ego Test in Bankruptcy Settings	1214	—
B. The Stock Purchaser.	1219	—
C. Adoption of Predecessor’s Contract	1225	—
V. Successorship and the Contract-Bar Doctrine	1229	—
VI. Liability of Successor for Predecessor’s Unfair Labor Practices	1233	229

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
CHAPTER 16. Subjects of Bargaining	1245	231
I. Introduction	1247	—
II. Historical Background	1248	—
III. Development of the Distinction Between “Mandatory” and “Permissive”	1251	234
A. Borg-Warner —The Basic Principles	1251	—
B. Pittsburgh Plate Glass —The “Vitally Affects” Test	1253	234
C. Ford Motor Co. —The Role of the Board and of Industry Bargaining Practices	1256	—
D. First National Maintenance Corp. — The Balancing Test	1257	235
E. Application of First National : From Otis Elevator to Dubuque Packing	1260	236
IV. Mandatory Subjects of Bargaining	1263	236
A. Wages	1264	236
1. In General	1264	236
2. Specific Forms of Compensation	1265	237
a. Bonuses	1265	237
b. Pensions	1269	—
c. Health and Welfare, and Insurance Plans	1274	237
d. Profit-Sharing Plans	1281	—
e. Stock Purchase Plans	1282	—
f. Merit Wage Increases	1283	238
g. Housing, Meals, Services, and Discounts Supplied by Employer	1288	239
h. Other Miscellaneous Benefits	1290	240
i. Payments and Charges to Nonemployees That Affect Wages of Employees	1292	—
3. Effect of Governmental Wage Controls	1293	—
B. Hours	1294	—
C. Other Terms and Conditions of Employment	1298	240
1. In General	1298	—
2. Specific Terms and Requirements	1300	240
a. Seniority, Promotions, and Transfers	1300	240
b. Retirement Eligibility	1303	—
c. Union-Security Provisions and Hiring Halls	1304	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
d. Management-Rights and Waiver Clauses	1307	—
e. Plant Rules and Discipline	1309	240
f. Drug and Alcohol Testing	1314	242
g. Grievance Procedures and Arbitration	1316	242
h. Safety and Health	1318	—
i. No-Strike and No-Lockout Clauses	1321	242
j. Work Assignments	1321	242
k. No-Discrimination Provisions	1326	—
l. Change in Operations	1327	—
m. Major Business Changes	1329	243
(1) Subcontracting and Removal of Work From the Bargaining Unit	1329	243
(a) Background	1330	—
(b) Supreme Court Decisions	1331	—
(c) Otis Elevator (II)	1337	244
(d) Effects of the Decision to Subcontract or Transfer Work	1340	—
(e) Relocation of Unit Work During Contract Term	1341	—
(f) Transfer of Unit Work	1343	245
(2) Partial Closure, Sale, or Merger of Business, or Plant Relocation	1344	246
n. Successorship and “Application of Contract” Clauses	1354	—
o. Arrangements and Conditions for Negotiations	1356	—
p. Neutrality Agreements	1360	—
V. Permissive Subjects of Bargaining	1362	246
A. In General	1362	246
B. Specific Subjects	1365	247
1. Definition of Bargaining Unit	1365	247
2. Parties to a Collective Bargaining Agreement	1372	—
3. Selection of Bargaining Representative	1373	247
4. Union-Recognition Clause	1375	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
5. Performance Bonds, Indemnifications, and Legal Liability Clauses	1375	—
6. Administrative Expense Funds	1377	—
7. Interest Arbitration and Bi-Level Bargaining	1378	248
8. Internal Union Affairs	1383	249
9. Union Label	1385	—
10. Industry Promotion Funds	1386	—
11. Employees Excluded From Coverage of the Act: Supervisors and Agricultural Labor	1387	—
12. Settlement of Unfair Labor Practice Charges	1388	—
13. Tape Recordings, Stenographers, and Other Technical Preconditions on the Bargaining Process	1390	250
14. Miscellaneous	1391	250
VI. Illegal Subjects of Bargaining	1393	252
A. Relationship to Duty to Bargain	1393	252
B. Specific Illegal Subjects	1395	—

PART V

ARBITRATION AND THE ACT

CHAPTER 17. Relation of Board Action to Enforcement of Agreements Under Section 301	1403	255
I. Introduction	1404	256
II. Section 10(a) Power of the Board	1406	257
III. Scope and Purpose of Section 301	1408	257
A. Background and Legislative History	1408	—
1. Background	1408	—
2. Legislative History	1409	—
B. A Source of Federal Substantive Law	1410	—
C. The Steelworkers Trilogy	1416	257
D. Jurisdiction of the Courts: State and Federal	1424	—
E. Jurisdiction of the Courts: Preemption	1425	—
F. Overlapping Jurisdiction: Conflict or Accommodation?	1426	258
1. Federal and State Courts	1426	258
a. Concurrent Jurisdiction	1426	—
b. Statutes of Limitations	1427	258

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
2. The Board and the Courts	1435	258
IV. Injunctions in Aid of Arbitration: Section 301 Versus Norris-LaGuardia	1446	259
A. The Supreme Court First Bars, Then, in Boys Markets , Allows, Enjoining of Strikes Over Arbitrable Grievances	1446	259
B. The Boys Markets Injunction: Halting Strikes Over Arbitrable Grievances	1449	259
1. The Prerequisites for Issuance of Injunctive Relief	1449	259
a. In General	1449	259
b. Strike in Breach of a Contract	1451	—
c. Strike Over an Arbitrable Dispute	1454	260
d. Irreparable Injury and the Balance of Equities	1459	260
e. Employer Ordered to Arbitrate	1461	—
f. Limitations on Prospective Relief; Mootness	1461	261
2. Sympathy Strikes Not Enjoinable: Buffalo Forge	1463	261
3. Safety Strikes	1467	—
4. Injunctions Against Employers to Preserve the Status Quo	1468	264
5. Injunctions Against Employers in Aid of Employee Choice During Safety Investigations [New Topic]	—	264
C. Injunction Suits in State Courts	1475	265
V. NLRB Interpretation of the Collective Bargaining Agreement	1476	266
A. Statutory Authority to Interpret Agreements	1477	266
B. Cases Where the Board Interprets Contract Provisions	1480	—
1. Interpretation of Lawful Contract Clauses	1480	—
2. Interpretation to Determine Whether Express Statutory Prohibitions Have Been Violated	1481	—
CHAPTER 18. Accommodation of Board Action to the Arbitration Process	1483	267
I. Introduction and Historical Development	1485	269
A. Arbitration and the Courts	1485	269

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
B. Jurisdiction of the NLRB Over Arbitral Matters	1489	270
C. From Post-Arbitration Deferral Under Spielberg to Prearbitration Deferral Under Collyer	1495	—
1. The Spielberg Rationale for Board Deferral After an Arbitrator Has Ruled	1495	—
2. The Collyer Rationale for Board Deferral Before Arbitration Has Occurred	1497	—
3. Collyer in the Reviewing Courts.	1503	—
D. Contractions and Expansions of Collyer Deferral Policy	1504	—
1. Restricting the Deferral Practice: General American Transportation	1504	—
2. Expanding the Deferral Practice: United Technologies	1505	—
E. The Board’s Dubo Deferral Policy	1507	—
II. Prearbitral Deferral: Applying the Collyer Doctrine	1508	270
A. The Parties’ Relationship.	1508	270
B. The Parties’ Willingness to Arbitrate and Arbitrability	1510	271
C. Whether the Dispute Centers on the Collective Bargaining Agreement	1514	271
1. Matters Incidentally Related to the Collective Bargaining Agreement.	1514	—
2. Discharge and Discipline Cases	1521	—
3. Matters Involving the Contract: Unilateral Action.	1522	—
4. Demands for Information	1526	271
D. The Board’s Continuing Role in Collyer and Dubo Deferral Cases.	1528	—
III. Post-Arbitral Deferral: Applying the Spielberg Standards	1530	271
A. The Issue Under the Act Was Presented and Considered in Arbitration	1531	—
1. Development of the Law: Early Indecision and Vacillation	1531	—
2. The Current Standard: “Factual Parallelism” Under Olin	1533	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
3. Application of the “Factual Parallelism” Standard	1535	—
B. Fair and Regular Proceedings	1539	271
1. The Arbitral Procedure	1539	271
2. Hostility of the Tribunal or Union Representative Toward the Grievant	1540	—
C. Agreement of All Parties to Be Bound	1542	271
D. The Award Is Not Repugnant to the Policies of the Act	1543	272
IV. Other Factors Affecting the Board’s Post-Arbitral Deferral Policy	1548	272
A. Representation Cases	1549	272
B. Certain Unfair Labor Practices: Sections 8(a) (2) and 8(a) (4)	1551	—
C. Work-Assignment Disputes, Deferral by Statute	1553	273
D. Settlement or Other Disposition Under a Grievance Procedure Short of an Arbitral Award.	1554	273
1. Deferral to Joint Committee Awards	1555	—
2. Deferral to Voluntary Grievance Settlements	1556	273
3. Deferral to Grievances Dropped by the Union	1559	—
E. Failure to Abide by an Arbitral Award.	1559	—
V. Response of the Reviewing Court to the Board’s Deferral Standards	1561	—

PART VI

ECONOMIC ACTION

CHAPTER 19. The Primary Strike.	1483	277
I. Introduction: The Right to Strike.	1572	278
A. Constitutional Protection.	1573	278
B. Preemption	1581	—
C. Statutory Protections and Restrictions	1584	—
1. Protections to Engage in Strikes	1584	—
2. Restrictions on the Right to Strike.	1586	—
II. Strikes Protected Under the Act.	1591	278
A. Generally.	1591	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
B. Economic and Unfair Labor Practice Strikes	1591	278
1. Unfair Labor Practice Strikes	1592	278
2. Economic Strikes	1598	279
III. Unprotected and Prohibited Strikes	1606	281
A. Unlawful or Wrongful Means	1607	281
1. Sit-Down or Sit-In Strikes	1607	—
2. Minority Strikes	1608	—
3. Partial and Intermittent Strikes	1609	281
4. Picket Line Misconduct; Strike Violence	1613	281
B. Unlawful or Wrongful Ends	1618	281
1. Strikes in Violation of the Act	1619	—
2. Strikes in Breach of Contract	1623	281
3. Strikes in Circumvention of the Exclusive Bargaining Representative	1625	—
IV. Rights of Employees Respecting Picket Lines: Sympathy Strikes	1626	—
A. Statutory Rights of Employees	1626	—
B. Effect of Contractual Waiver of Rights	1631	—
C. Sympathy Strikes Not Enjoinable: Buffalo Forge	1633	—
CHAPTER 20. The Lockout	1637	283
I. Introduction: Historical Perspective	1638	—
A. Basic Concepts	1638	—
B. Lockouts for Unlawful or Wrongful Purposes	1640	—
C. Evolution of Justifiable Lockouts: The Defensive Lockout	1643	—
1. The Single-Employer Defensive Lockout	1643	—
2. The Defensive Multi-Employer Lockout	1645	—
D. Legitimation of the “Offensive” Lockout: Economic Lockouts and American Ship Building	1647	—
E. Brown Food and Its Progeny—The Multi-Employer Lockout	1651	—
II. Contemporary Law of Lockouts	1657	284
A. The Offensive Economic Lockout— In General	1657	284

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
1. Lockouts Occurring in Conjunction With Employer Unfair Labor Practices.	1657	284
2. The Use of Replacements.	1663	285
3. The Pre-Impasse Lockout.	1665	—
4. The Lockout During First Negotiations	1667	—
5. The Partial Lockout	1668	285
6. The “Common Interest” Lockout	1670	—
7. Timing of Lockout	1671	—
8. Notification of Purpose of Lockout.	1672	—
 CHAPTER 21. Picketing for Organization and Recognition	 1675	 287
I. Introduction: Recognitional Picketing in History	1676	—
A. Taft-Hartley Amendments: Section 8(b) (4) (C) Forbids Picketing Where Another Union Is Certified	1677	—
B. Curtis Brothers : Recognitional Picketing Not Regulated by Section 8(b) (1) (A)	1677	—
C. Landrum-Griffin Amendments: Enactment of Section 8(b) (7)	1678	—
II. Picketing Defined	1680	288
A. Threats of Picketing	1681	—
B. Patrolling or Carrying Placards	1682	288
C. Handbilling as Picketing	1685	—
III. Proscribed Organizational or Recognitional Objective	1686	290
A. Evidence of Proscribed Object	1688	290
B. Picketing to Protest Unfair Labor Practices or Discharges.	1694	—
C. Area-Standards Picketing	1700	291
1. Area-Standards Object Not Proscribed	1700	291
2. Picketing on Private Property.	1707	—
D. Members-Only Agreements	1707	—
E. Prehire Agreements	1708	—
IV. Picketing When Another Union Is Currently Recognized.	1710	—
A. Contract-Bar Limitations on Picketing	1711	—
B. Section 8(a) (2): Assistance to Incumbent as Defense	1713	—
C. Section 8(a) (2) Defense.	1714	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
D. Inapplicability of Informational Proviso	1715	—
V. Picketing Within Twelve Months of a Valid Election	1716	—
A. Validity of the Election	1719	—
1. Invalidity of the Direction of Election	1719	—
2. Other Assertions of Invalidity.	1720	—
B. Determinative Dates	1721	—
1. The Violation	1721	—
2. The Remedy	1721	—
VI. Picketing of Unreasonable Duration Absent a Petition	1722	292
A. Reasonable Period of Time	1723	292
B. Effect of Filing or Refraining From Filing a Petition.	1726	293
VII. The Informational Picketing Proviso	1729	293
A. Scope of the Proviso: Dual-Purpose Picketing	1732	293
B. The Statutory Requisites	1733	—
1. Appeal to the Public	1733	—
2. Truthfully Advising the Public	1735	—
3. Absence of Impermissible Effect	1737	—
CHAPTER 22. Secondary Activity: Handbills, Pickets, and Strikes	1739	295
I. Introduction: Development of the Law	1741	—
A. The Generally Protected Nature of Picketing and Handbilling.	1742	—
1. The Constitutional Dimensions.	1742	—
2. Basic Statutory Protection	1744	—
B. Regulation of Secondary Activity Before Taft-Hartley	1746	—
C. The Taft-Hartley Amendments: Secondary Activity Limited.	1750	—
D. The Landrum-Griffin Amendments: Closing the Taft-Hartley “Loopholes”	1751	—
II. Section 8(b) (4) (B): Prohibited Secondary Activity Defined	1754	297
A. Definitions of Terms.	1754	297
1. “Doing Business” [New Topic].	—	297
2. “Picketing” [New Topic].	—	298
B. The Elusive Distinction Between Primary and Secondary Conduct.	1762	299
C. The Situs of the Dispute.	1765	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
1. Primary Situs	1765	—
2. Common and Ambulatory Situs	1768	—
D. The Reserved Gate and the Related-Work Test.	1772	300
1. General Electric : To Whom May the Union Appeal?	1773	—
2. Carrier Corp.	1776	—
3. Application in the Construction Industry	1778	300
4. Application Generally: The Totality of Conduct Test.	1782	—
a. The First Moore Dry Dock Criterion: The Primary Employer Is Present at the Site	1786	—
b. The Second Moore Dry Dock Criterion: The Primary Employer Is Engaged in Its Normal Business at the Situs	1789	—
c. The Third Moore Dry Dock Criterion: Picketing Must Occur Reasonably Close to the Situs of the Primary Employer.	1789	—
d. The Fourth Moore Dry Dock Criterion: Picketing Must Identify the Primary Employer.	1796	—
E. The Ally Doctrine	1797	—
1. Struck Work.	1798	—
2. The Straight-Line Operation/ Single-Employer Status	1803	—
F. Applying the Primary-Secondary Tests	1809	301
1. Conduct Other Than Picketing	1811	301
2. Nature of Related Work	1816	—
3. Location of the Picketing	1817	—
G. Bannering	1819	302
H. Political Boycotts.	1820	—
III. Handbilling	1824	302
A. DeBartolo II : Consumer Handbilling Not Prohibited by Section 8(b)(4)(B)	1824	—
B. Standards for Lawful Handbilling	1827	302
1. The Conduct of Handbilling	1828	—
2. Location of Handbilling.	1832	302
IV. Consumer Picketing	1833	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
A. The Tree Fruits Case: Point of Sale Picketing of Struck Product	1833	—
B. Development of the Law After Tree Fruits	1836	—
1. “Merged Products” and Other Problems of the Economic Setting	1836	—
2. Total Economic Boycott of the Secondary Employer—The Safeco Caveat	1839	—
3. Specificity of the Union’s Appeal: Location and Timing	1842	—
4. Application by State Courts	1846	—
V. Actions for Damages Under Section 303	1847	302
A. Nature of the Action.	1847	302
1. Relationship to Section 8(b)(4).	1847	302
2. Who Can Sue and Be Sued?	1850	—
3. Effect of Arbitration Clause	1857	303
B. Relationship to Related Board Proceedings—Res Judicata and Collateral Estoppel.	1857	—
C. The Measure of Damages.	1859	304
D. Limitations, Federal Preemption, and Supplemental Jurisdiction	1865	—
1. Statutes of Limitations	1865	—
2. Federal Preemption	1866	—
3. Supplemental Jurisdiction	1867	—
CHAPTER 23. Section 8(e): The “Hot-Cargo” Agreement	1869	305
I. Introduction: The Law Before Landrum- Griffin.	1870	—
II. Enactment of Section 8(e): Agreements to Boycott Prohibited	1873	—
A. Scope of the Provision	1873	—
B. Constitutionality	1876	—
III. Interpretation and Application	1877	306
A. Definitions and Coverage.	1877	306
B. Picket Line Clause	1883	—
C. Struck and Nonunion Goods and Work	1886	—
D. Subcontracting and Work-Allocation Clauses.	1889	—
1. Early Development	1889	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
2. National Woodwork : Work Preservation as Primary Objective	1895	—
3. Application of National Woodwork	1898	—
a. Work-Preservation Clauses
Generally	1898	—
b. Union-Standards Clauses	1906	—
c. Fringe-Benefit Fund Clauses	1908	—
d. Right-of-Control Exception: Enterprise Association	1911	—
E. Construction Industry Proviso Allowing Agreements Concerning Job-Site Work.	1915	307
1. Scope of the Proviso: Connell and Woelke & Romero	1916	—
2. Job-Site Work.	1922	—
3. Obtaining and Enforcing Subcontracting Agreements.	1925	307
4. Clauses Prohibiting Double-Breasting.	1929	308
F. Garment Industry Proviso	1932	—
CHAPTER 24. Jurisdictional Disputes and “Featherbedding”	1935	309
I. Introduction.	1936	—
II. Jurisdictional Disputes.	1936	310
A. Background: Development of the Law	1936	—
B. Enactment of Sections 8(b)(4)(D) and 10(k).	1937	—
1. Limited Enforcement by the Board.	1938	—
2. The CBS Case	1939	—
3. Scope of Section 8(b)(4)(D)	1940	—
C. Procedure in Jurisdictional Dispute Cases	1951	310
1. Generally	1951	310
2. Voluntary Adjustment.	1953	310
3. Disclaimer	1957	310
4. Judicial Review of Section 10(k) Awards	1959	—
D. Factors Determining Jurisdictional Disputes.	1961	310
E. Post-Hearing Procedure.	1968	311
F. Relationship of Section 8(b)(4)(D) Proceedings to Other Actions and Unfair Labor Practice Proceedings	1973	311
III. “Featherbedding”	1977	—
A. Background.	1977	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
B. Judicial Limitations	1979	—
C. Application of the Law	1981	—

PART VII

RELATIONS BETWEEN EMPLOYEE AND UNION

CHAPTER 25. The Duty of Fair Representation	1987	315
I. Introduction: Origin of the Duty	1988	—
A. Relationship to Exclusive Representation: Steele and Tunstall	1988	—
B. The Duty Defined: Vaca v. Sipes	1991	—
II. Jurisdiction and Procedures to Enforce the Duty	1995	316
A. The Courts	1995	316
1. Exhaustion of Contractual Remedies	1998	316
2. Exhaustion of Internal Union Remedies	2003	—
3. Parties to Fair Representation Actions	2008	—
4. Right to Jury Trial	2012	—
B. The Labor Board	2014	318
1. Unfair Labor Practice Cases	2014	318
2. Board Representation Proceedings	2019	—
3. Preemption and Accommodation	2021	318
III. Nature of the Duty	2029	319
A. The Duty Described	2029	—
B. The Nature of the Duty in Grievance Handling and Contract Administration	2041	319
C. The Duty in Collective Bargaining	2052	—
IV. Statutes of Limitations	2066	320
V. Remedies	2075	—
A. The Board	2075	—
1. Unfair Labor Practice Cases	2075	—
2. Representation Proceedings	2082	—
B. The Courts	2083	—
1. Damages	2083	—
2. Attorneys' Fees	2086	—
3. Injunctions and Other Equitable Remedies	2090	—
4. Apportionment of Liability	2092	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
CHAPTER 26. Union Security	2097	323
I. Introduction: Historical Evolution	2098	—
A. Union Security: The Obligation of Membership	2098	—
B. The Wagner Act and the Closed Shop	2101	—
C. The Taft-Hartley Amendments: Modifying the Lawful Obligations of Membership	2102	—
D. Developments After Taft-Hartley	2103	—
II. Required Membership—The Union Shop	2104	—
A. In General	2104	—
1. Financial Core Membership	2106	—
2. Failure to Tender Payments	2114	—
3. Miscellaneous Requirements	2115	—
B. Enforcement Procedures	2118	—
1. Information and Notice to Employees of Obligation	2122	—
C. The 30-Day Grace Period	2125	—
D. Uniform Periodic Dues and Fees	2127	—
1. The Requirements of Sections 8(a) (3) and (b) (2)	2127	—
2. Initiation Fees	2133	—
E. The Belated Tender	2136	—
F. The Contract Bar	2138	—
1. Representation Elections	2138	—
2. Union-Shop Deauthorization Elections	2139	—
G. The Section 8(f) Exception: The Construction Industry	2141	—
H. Market Recovery Dues	2142	—
III. Variations: The Agency Shop and Maintenance of Membership	2143	—
A. Agency Shop	2143	—
B. Maintenance of Membership	2147	—
IV. Section 14(b) and State “Right-to-Work” Laws	2149	324
V. Hiring-Hall and Job-Referral Practices	2157	325
A. General Rules	2157	325
B. Remedies	2171	—
VI. The Dues Checkoff	2176	326
A. The LMRA and the Courts	2176	—
B. The Checkoff in the Public Sector	2180	—
C. The NLRB	2181	326
1. Jurisdiction of the Board	2181	326

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
2. Specific Violations.	2184	—
VII. Constitutional Dimensions and Other Statutory Requirements.	2188	326
A. Constitutionality of the Union Shop.	2189	—
B. Effect of Political Expenditures.	2191	326
C. Religious Objectors.	2203	330

PART VIII

ADMINISTRATION OF THE ACT

CHAPTER 27. Jurisdiction: Coverage of the Act	2207	333
I. Constitutionality	2211	—
A. As a Regulation of Commerce.	2211	—
B. The Shadow of the First Amendment: Jurisdiction Over Religious Organizations	2213	—
II. Statutory Jurisdiction.	2220	335
A. Basic Coverage: “Commerce” and “Affected Commerce”	2220	—
B. Foreign Operations	2225	335
C. The U.S. Postal Service.	2230	—
D. Health Care Institutions.	2230	—
E. Nonprofit Organizations	2234	—
F. Relation to Jurisdictions of Other Agencies	2237	335
1. Railway Labor Act.	2237	335
2. Shipping Act	2239	—
III. Definitions and Limitations on Coverage	2240	336
A. Person	2240	—
B. Employer.	2241	336
1. Single-Employer Status.	2242	336
2. Joint Employer	2247	—
3. Agents	2249	336
4. Exclusions From Coverage of the Act	2252	336
a. International Organizations.	2253	—
b. Indian Tribes	2253	336
c. Political Subdivisions.	2254	337
(1) Departmental or Administrative Arm of Government	2254	337
(2) Responsible to Government or General Electorate	2255	—
d. Government Contractors	2257	—
C. Employee.	2259	337

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
1. In General	2259	337
2. Excluded Categories of Employees	2262	338
a. Supervisors	2262	338
b. Managerial Employees	2274	341
c. Confidential Employees	2278	—
d. Agricultural Laborers	2281	—
e. Independent Contractors	2285	342
(1) In General	2285	—
(2) Insurance Agents	2288	—
(3) Owner-Operators in the Trucking Industry	2288	—
(4) Newspaper Carriers and Distributors	2291	—
(5) Free-Lance Performers, Musicians, and Announcers	2292	—
(6) Taxicab Owner-Operators and Lessees	2294	—
(7) Service Station Operators	2296	—
(8) Free-Lance Photographers	2296	—
(9) Miscellaneous Classifications	2296	—
f. Family Members and Relationships	2299	—
g. Domestic Servants	2301	—
h. Medical Residents and Interns	2302	—
i. Employees of “Nonemployers”	2303	—
j. Retired Employees	2303	342
k. Section 8(d) Loss-of-Status Clause	2305	342
IV. Discretionary Administrative Jurisdictional Standards	2305	342
A. In General	2305	—
B. Specific Assertions or Denials of Coverage	2307	342
C. Advisory Opinions and Declaratory Orders	2320	—
CHAPTER 28. Federal Preemption of State Regulation	2323	345
I. Introduction	2325	—
A. The Constitutional Basis	2326	—
B. The Congressional Role	2328	—
C. The Judicial Role	2328	—
II. Evolution of Preemption Doctrine	2330	347
A. The Actual and Potential Conflict of State and Federal Regulation	2330	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
B. The Briggs & Stratton Detour: State Regulation of Conduct Left Unregulated by Congress	2331	—
C. The Preemptive Effect of NLRB Primary Jurisdiction	2332	—
D. Federalism: Recognizing Important Matters of Particular Local Concern	2334	347
E. Matters of Peripheral Concern to the NLRA	2337	—
F. A Brief Gap in Regulation: State Power Preempted Despite Board Refusal to Act	2338	—
G. A Foundation: Garmon Preempts State Regulation of Conduct Arguably Protected or Prohibited by the Act.	2339	347
H. Briggs & Stratton Overruled: States May Not Regulate Economic Weapons Furnished by Congress	2348	349
I. Garmon Refined: Reconsidering the Preemption of Arguably Protected or Prohibited Conduct	2357	—
III. Garmon Preemption in Specific Situations.	2361	350
A. Picketing in General.	2362	350
B. Trespass	2363	—
C. Violence, Threats of Violence, and Intimidation.	2366	—
D. Other Intentional Torts	2368	350
1. Defamation: Linn v. Plant Guard Workers	2368	350
2. Inflicting Emotional Distress: Farmer v. Carpenters	2372	351
3. Fraud, Misrepresentation, and Other Intentional Torts.	2374	351
E. Internal Union Matters	2376	—
IV. Preemption Under Section 301	2379	352
A. Section 301 Suits.	2379	—
B. The Preemptive Effect of Section 301	2381	352
C. Relationship to NLRB	2400	355
1. Introduction: Exclusive Jurisdiction of Board Versus Concurrent Jurisdiction	2400	—
2. Jurisdiction in Representation Matters	2403	355
3. Jurisdiction in Other Matters.	2408	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
D. Relationship to the Norris-LaGuardia Act	2410	—
V. Preemptive Effect of Other Statutory Provisions	2414	356
A. Section 303 Actions	2414	356
B. State Power Under Section 14(b) to Regulate Union-Security Agreements	2417	—
C. State Power to Regulate When the Board Declines Jurisdiction Under Section 14(c)	2421	—
D. Board Cession Under Section 10(a)	2422	—
E. Fair Representation	2423	356
1. Concurrent Jurisdiction of Board and Courts	2423	—
2. Federal Law Governs	2426	356
F. Disputes Not Within the Coverage of the NLRA	2429	—
CHAPTER 29. Accommodations to Other Federal Enactments	2433	359
I. The NLRA and the Antitrust Law	2434	360
A. Historical Development of the Antitrust Laws	2435	—
B. Loss of the Exemption Through Combination With Nonlabor Groups	2438	—
C. The Requirement of a “Labor Dispute”	2442	—
D. The Issue of the Board’s Primary Jurisdiction	2445	—
E. The Connell Decision: Union Restraints on Subcontracting in the Construction Industry	2447	—
F. Application of the Statutory and Nonstatutory Exemption After Connell	2451	360
G. Employer Antitrust Suits as Illegal Retaliation for Protected Activity	2464	362
II. The NLRA and the Bankruptcy Code	2466	363
A. Power of Bankruptcy Court to Reject Collective Bargaining Agreement	2467	363
1. Requirements for Rejection of a Collective Bargaining Agreement	2468	363
2. Modification of Post-Retirement Health Benefits	2474	366
3. Bargaining After Rejection Is Authorized	2475	368

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
4. Post-Petition Collective Bargaining Agreements	2476	—
B. Priority of Wage and Employee Benefit Plan Contributions	2477	370
1. Prepetition Claims	2477	370
2. Post-Petition Claims for Wages and Benefits Due Under an Unrejected Agreement.	2479	371
3. Priority of Claims for Wages and Benefits Due Under Rejected Agreement.	2481	371
4. Enforcement of an Unrejected Collective Bargaining Agreement	2482	—
C. Severance Pay and Withdrawal Liability	2483	—
D. Limitations on Jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Courts	2486	—
1. Bankruptcy Code Automatic Stay Provision	2486	—
2. Jurisdiction of Bankruptcy Court to Enjoin NLRB Proceedings.	2488	—
E. Bankruptcy of a Labor Organization.	2492	—
III. The NLRA and Immigration Law.	2493	371
CHAPTER 30. RICO and Labor Law.	2497	373
I. Introduction.	2500	—
II. Historical Background of RICO and Its Applicability to Labor Disputes	2502	—
A. Legislative History.	2502	—
1. Expansion of the Statute From a Measure to Control Organized Crime.	2502	—
2. RICO and Labor Disputes	2505	—
B. Subsequent Amendments and Proposals to Limit RICO.	2507	—
C. State Laws Applicable to Labor Racketeering	2509	—
III. Overview of the Statute	2511	376
A. Key Elements.	2511	376
1. Racketeering Activity	2511	376
2. Person	2516	—
3. Enterprise	2517	377
4. Pattern	2522	377
5. Causation.	2530	—
B. Three Substantive Violations	2532	377

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
1. 18 U.S.C. §1962(a) (Using or Investing Racketeering Income)	2532	—
a. Investment Injury	2534	—
b. Person/Enterprise Distinction	2535	—
2. 18 U.S.C. §1962(b) (Acquiring or Maintaining an Interest in an Enterprise)	2535	377
a. Acquisition Injury	2537	—
b. Control	2537	377
c. Person/Enterprise Distinction	2538	—
3. 18 U.S.C. §1962(c) (Conducting an Enterprise’s Affairs Through Racketeering)	2538	—
a. Person/Enterprise Distinction	2541	—
(1) Application to Corporate Relationships	2542	—
(2) Application to Association-in-Fact Enterprises	2544	—
b. Operation or Management Requirement	2549	—
4. 18 U.S.C. §1962(d) (Conspiracy to Violate the Substantive Provisions)	2553	—
a. Relationship to Substantive RICO Violations	2555	—
b. Agreement by the Defendant to the Commission of Predicate Acts	2557	—
c. Injury From an Act in Furtherance of the Conspiracy	2559	—
d. Intra-Corporate Conspiracies	2559	—
IV. Predicate Acts Commonly Alleged in Labor Cases	2561	378
A. 18 U.S.C. §664: Embezzlement From Pension and Welfare Funds	2561	—
B. 18 U.S.C. §1954: Unlawful Welfare Fund Payments	2566	—
C. 29 U.S.C. §186: Restrictions on Payments and Loans to Labor Organizations	2568	378
D. 29 U.S.C. §501(c): Embezzlement From Union Funds	2573	—
E. 18 U.S.C. §1951: “Racketeering” Prohibited by the Hobbs Act	2577	378
1. History of the Hobbs Act	2577	—
2. Enmons	2579	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
3. Application of the Hobbs Act to RICO Cases After Enmons	2581	—
a. Legitimate Objectives	2581	—
b. Property	2584	—
c. Nonapplicability of Enmons to Other Statutes	2585	—
4. Application of the Hobbs Act to RICO Cases After Scheidler II	2586	378
a. Background of National Organization for Women v. Scheidler	2586	—
b. The Supreme Court’s Interpretation of the Hobbs Act in Scheidler II and Scheidler III [Revised Heading Title] . .	2587	378
c. Courts’ Interpretation of the Hobbs Act Post- Scheidler II	2589	379
F. Immigration Violations	2593	380
V. Issues in Civil Litigation	2598	391
A. Standing	2598	391
1. Person	2598	—
2. Business or Property	2599	—
3. “By Reason of”	2601	391
4. Standing Under Section 1962(d)	2608	—
B. Accommodation to the Labor Laws	2610	—
1. Early Leading Cases on “Preemption” of Civil RICO Claims	2612	—
a. Butchers Local 498 v. SDC Investment	2613	—
b. MHC, Inc. v. Mine Workers	2614	—
2. The Emerging Majority Rule	2616	—
a. Cases Recognizing Limited Labor Law “Preemption”	2616	—
b. Cases Rejecting Labor Law “Preemption”	2619	—
3. The Minority Rule	2621	—
4. Accommodation of RICO and Labor Laws in Criminal and Consent Decree Cases	2622	—
C. Vicarious Liability	2625	—
1. Claims Under 18 U.S.C. §1962(c)	2625	—
a. Where the Principal Is Not Distinct From the Enterprise	2625	—
b. Where the Principal Is Distinct From the Enterprise	2627	—
2. Claims Under 18 U.S.C. §§1962(a)–(b)	2630	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
D. Aiding and Abetting Liability	2630	—
E. Statute of Limitations	2635	393
VI. Remedies	2639	—
A. Criminal Sentences	2640	—
B. Criminal Forfeiture	2640	—
C. Trusteeships and Other Injunctive Relief	2643	—
D. Damages in Private Actions	2651	—
E. Arbitration of RICO Claims	2653	—
CHAPTER 31. NLRB Procedures	2655	395
I. Organization of Board and Office of General Counsel	2656	396
A. Background	2656	—
B. The Board	2668	396
C. The General Counsel	2659	397
D. The Administrative Law Judges	2660	—
E. The Regional Offices	2661	—
II. Procedures in Representation Cases	2662	397
A. The Petition	2662	397
B. Timeliness of Petitions	2664	398
C. Investigation of Petitions	2666	399
D. Consent Elections	2669	—
E. Representation Hearings	2669	—
F. Representation Decisions	2671	—
1. By the Regional Director	2671	—
2. By the Board	2672	—
3. Oral Argument	2673	—
G. The Election	2673	400
1. Date and Place	2673	—
2. Eligibility of Voters	2674	400
3. Voting Procedure	2677	—
H. Objections to the Election and Challenged Ballots	2678	402
I. Amendment, Clarification, and Revocation	2680	402
J. Deauthorization and Decertification Elections	2680	—
III. Procedures in Unfair Labor Practice Cases	2681	402
A. Background	2682	—
B. The Unfair Labor Practice Charge	2683	402
1. Time for Filing	2683	402
2. Investigation of Charge	2686	—
3. Disposition of Charge	2687	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
4. Settlement of Unfair Labor Practice Charges	2688	405
a. Informal Settlements	2689	406
b. Formal Settlements	2691	407
c. Non-Board Settlement Agreements	2692	407
5. The Complaint and the Answer	2692	408
6. The Unfair Labor Practice Hearing	2695	—
7. The Administrative Law Judge’s Decision	2698	409
8. The Board’s Decision	2699	—
9. Compliance Procedures	2700	410
10. Applicability of the Equal Access to Justice Act	2701	412
IV. Procedures Applicable to All Cases	2703	413
A. Ex Parte Rule	2703	—
B. Discovery	2704	413
C. Subpoenas	2706	413
D. Request for Information Under the Freedom of Information Act	2709	—
E. Applicability of the Right of Privacy Act	2712	—
V. The NLRB and Rulemaking	2712	—
VI. Other Rulemaking Initiatives	2716	415
CHAPTER 32. NLRB Orders and Remedies	2717	417
I. General Principles	2719	—
II. Orders in Representation Cases (Section 9)	2722	—
III. Orders and Remedies in Complaint Cases (Section 10)	2724	420
A. Provisional Remedies	2724	420
1. General Principles	2726	420
a. Discretionary Injunctions Under Section 10(j)	2726	420
(1) Statutory Purpose	2726	—
(2) The Board’s Utilization of Section 10(j)	2727	420
(3) Judicial Standards	2727	420
(4) Temporary Restraining Orders	2731	—
(5) Delay in Filing Petition	2731	421
(6) Injunctions Against Employers	2732	421
(7) Injunctions Against Unions	2735	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
(8) Duration of Section 10(j) Relief	2736	—
b. Mandatory Injunctions Under Section 10(l)	2737	421
(1) Standards for Issuance	2737	421
(2) Temporary Restraining Orders	2741	—
(3) Limitations on Charging Party	2741	—
(4) Duration of Injunctions	2742	—
c. Temporary Orders Under Sections 10(e) and (f)	2743	—
B. Final Orders and Remedies	2744	421
1. Final Orders and Remedies for Employer Misconduct	2746	421
a. Section 8(a) (1) Violations	2746	421
b. Section 8(a) (2) Violations	2748	422
c. Sections 8(a) (3) and (4)
Violations	2750	423
(1) In General	2750	423
(2) Discriminatory Discontinuance of Operations	2759	—
d. Section 8(a) (5) Violations	2761	426
(1) In General	2761	426
(2) Duration of Bargaining Order	2762	426
(3) Breadth of Bargaining Order	2763	—
(4) Bargaining Orders Denied Because of Union Misconduct	2763	—
(5) Remedies for Particular Kinds of Section 8(a) (5) Violations	2764	427
(a) Unilateral Changes	2764	427
(b) Supplying Information	2765	427
(c) Bargaining Orders
Without Certification	2765	427
(i) Where the union can show a majority	2765	427
(ii) Bargaining orders where the union lacks a majority	2770	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
(d) Execution of Contractual Provisions Where There Is an Agreement	2771	—
(e) Execution of Contractual Provisions Where There Is No Agreement	2773	—
(f) Surface Bargaining	2775	—
(g) Change of Operations	2775	—
(h) Remedies Against Successor to Bargaining Obligation	2777	428
(i) Withdrawal of Recognition	2778	429
2. Special Remedial Problems Involving Employers	2779	429
a. Flagrant Violations	2779	429
b. Litigation Costs, Attorneys' Fees, and Union Expenses	2782	431
c. Imposing Remedial Order on Successor to Wrongdoer	2784	431
d. Imposing Remedial Order on Joint Employer	2784	432
e. Imposing Remedial Order by Piercing the Corporate Veil [New Topic]	—	432
3. Final Orders and Remedies for Union Misconduct	2785	433
a. Sections 8(b)(1)(A) and (B) Violations	2785	433
b. Section 8(b)(2) Violations	2788	433
(1) General Principles	2788	433
(2) Scope of Order	2790	—
(3) Hiring-Hall Cases	2791	—
c. Fair Representation Cases	2792	433
d. Section 8(b)(3) Violations	2795	—
e. Section 8(b)(4) Violations	2795	434
f. Section 8(b)(5) Violations	2797	—
g. Section 8(b)(6) Violations	2797	—
h. Section 8(b)(7) Violations	2798	—
i. Section 8(e) Violations	2798	—
4. Special Remedial Problems Involving Unions	2800	434
a. Flagrant Violations	2800	434
b. Litigation Costs	2800	—

	Main Edition	Supple- ment
CHAPTER 33. Judicial Review and Enforcement.	2801	435
I. Introduction.	2802	436
II. Appellate Review and Enforcement.	2804	436
A. Board’s Rulings Subject to Review.	2804	436
1. Parties Entitled to Enforcement and Review	2806	436
2. Intervention	2809	—
3. Place for Filing Petition for Enforcement and Review	2809	—
4. Procedure	2811	436
B. Scope of Review	2814	437
1. Questions of Fact	2814	437
2. Questions of Law.	2821	437
3. Issues That Can Be Raised on Review	2826	—
4. Judicial Review of Equal Access to Justice Determinations.	2829	—
5. Disposition of Cases by Reviewing Court	2832	—
6. Award of Costs and Expenses on Review	2833	—
III. Direct Review and Enforcement.	2834	438
A. Review of Representation or Certification Action	2834	438
B. Review of Unfair Labor Practice Proceedings.	2840	438
C. Review Through Collateral Proceedings.	2844	—
APPENDIX National Labor Relations Act	2851	—
TABLE OF CASES	2889	439
INDEX	3279	—