A Joint Brown Bag on Amnesty and Immunity in Cartel Cases in Canada

November 29, 2007
12:00 – 1:30 PM EST

The New Canadian Immunity Program: What's New, What's Different; What you need to know to conduct an integrated approach to Amnesty in North America

This Brown Bag will undertake a detailed review of the recently issued Immunity Bulletin under the Canadian Competition Act and the FAQs that were issued by the Bureau to clarify practical questions about the administration of Canada's Immunity Program. With an increasingly integrated North American economy, continental sales and distribution networks for major participants in North American markets, the handling of Section 1 cases routinely has a Canadian connection. To properly manage the pitfalls in this critical area, practitioners in both Canada and the United States must have at their fingertips an understanding of the similarities and the differences in US and Canadian amnesty practice, and the new Canadian Bulletin sets out some major changes since the publication of the Competition Bureau's first Immunity Bulletin in 2000

Dial-in information will be forwarded to by email 3 days before the program.
