

ABA Section of Antitrust Law - Corporate Counseling Committee
Presents: January In-house Counsel Antitrust Update
Date: Tuesday, February 5, 2008
Time: 12 - 1 p.m. EDT

Don't miss any recent developments in antitrust law that may affect your company, your clients, or your litigation strategy. Join the Corporate Counseling Committee for its monthly Antitrust Update for In-house Counsel, a telephonic brown bag program to be held on February 5, 2008, from noon to 1 pm EST.

This program continues our popular monthly series of brown bags in which antitrust practitioners report on the most recent developments at the agencies and in the courts. The update portion of the program will last approximately one hour, including a Q&A at the end.

The firm presenting this month's Update is King & Spaulding. Speakers will be Peter Todaro, Jim Griffin, Ann Malekzadeh and Jeff Spigel. The program will be moderated by Paula Render of Jones Day, Vice-Chair of the Corporate Counseling Committee.

If you have already subscribed to this series, you do not need to do anything. You will receive the presentation materials and dial-in information the day before the program.

If you have not subscribed, you have two options.

Option 1 - Register only for the February 5 program by sending an email to sbrida@jonesday.com stating you wish to register only for the February 5 program.

Option 2 - Register for the February 5 program and all future monthly in-house counsel antitrust updates to the end of the year by sending an email to sbrida@jonesday.com stating you wish to register for all future monthly Updates. The call-in number and program materials for the February 5 program and all upcoming monthly updates will automatically be sent to you prior to the programs.

Finally, if you have subscribed to the Updates but no longer wish subscribe, send an email to the same address (sbrida@jonesday.com) and we will remove your name from the list.

Program materials and a call in number will be provided the day before the program. We look forward to another informative program and hope you'll join us.
