“MEET THE ECONOMIST ENFORCERS III: A DIALOGUE WITH JUAN DELGADO URDANIBIA OF SPAIN'S CNC AND PAULO FURQUIM DE AZEVEDO OF BRAZIL'S CADE”

In this teleconference Juan Delgado Urdanibia and Paulo Furquim de Azevedo will make short presentations on what they see as the key economic issues in competition enforcement in Spain, Brazil, followed by Q&As from the moderator and general discussion.

There will be a live opportunity at the end of the teleconference to ask our panelists questions. In addition, if you would like to submit a question in advance, please e-mail Evelina Kurgonaitė at ekurgonaitė@sidley.com.

Dr. Juan Delgado Urdanibia has been the Chief Economist at the Comisión Nacional de la Competencia (CNC) since November 2008. The newly created position aims to ensure rigorous economic analysis in the enforcement decisions and advocacy work of the CNC. Prior to joining the CNC, Mr. Delgado spent several years as a research fellow in competition and regulation at Bruegel, a Brussels-based think-tank, and at the Harvard Kennedy School of Government. He has also worked as an economist at the Directorate General for Competition of the European Commission and at the Spanish Telecoms regulator. He has written extensively for academic journals, policy publications and books. Mr. Delgado earned his PhD in Economics from Universidad Carlos III in Madrid and his MS in Economics from Warwick University.

Dr. Paulo Furquim de Azevedo is a Commissioner at Conselho Administrativo de Defesa Econômica (CADE), Brazil, and a Professor at the São Paulo School of Economics at Fundação Getúlio Vargas (FGV-EESP). He has also served as an Acting President of the CADE in fall 2008. Mr. Furquim de Azevedo is a visiting scholar at the University of California at Berkeley and the Institute of Management, Innovation and Organization; and a professor at University of São Paulo and Federal University of São Carlos in Brazil. He has been publishing extensively in the following fields: regulation, competition policy, inter-firm contracts, vertical coordination, and agribusiness organizations. Mr. Furquim de Azevedo holds a PhD in Economics from University of São Paulo, and a BA in Public Management.

MODERATOR: Dr. Elizabeth M. Bailey, NERA Economic Consulting, Special Consultant, Washington D.C. Dr Bailey is also a Clinical Professor in the Economics Department of Arizona State University.
