

ABA Section of Antitrust Law - Corporate Counseling Committee
Presents: June In-house Counsel Antitrust Update

Date: Wednesday, July 8, 2009
Time: 12 - 1 p.m. EDT

The Supreme Court has agreed to hear a class arbitration issue in the Stolt-Nielson antitrust litigation. A federal judge just denied a motion to dismiss antitrust claims alleging a conspiracy to coordinate production cuts in the ArcelorMittal case. The International Competition Network just adopted new recommended practices for substantive merger analysis and presented new reports on tying and discounts. What does it all mean for the attorney counseling a corporation on antitrust issues?

The Corporate Counseling Committee presents its June Antitrust Update on July 8, 2009, from 12:00 to 1:00 pm eastern. During this telephonic brown bag program, attorneys from Bingham McCutcheon will present current events and developments during June 2009 and discuss their significance and ramifications for corporate counselors. The Bingham McCutcheon panelists will be:

Alicia L. Downey
Jon R. Roelke
Daniel S. Savrin
Sujal Shah
Hill B. Wellford, III

The program will be moderated by Paula Render of Jones Day, Vice-Chair of the Corporate Counseling Committee.
