

JOY K. FUYUNO

Joy Fuyuno is a partner with Paul, Hastings, Janofsky & Walker LLP, in the firm's Tokyo office. She is a member of the firm's litigation department and global competition group. Her practice consists of antitrust counseling and litigation, as well as other commercial litigation. Ms. Fuyuno has substantial experience in cartel investigations, price-fixing and other class action litigation, merger control counseling and second requests, and distribution counseling, among other areas of antitrust law. Prior to joining Paul Hastings in 2006, she was with Bingham McCutchen LLP in San Francisco.

Ms. Fuyuno is active in the Antitrust Section of the American Bar Association. She is currently Vice-Chair of the International Committee and previously served three years as Vice-Chair of the Books & Treatises Committee. She has written and spoken on various antitrust law topics, including antitrust and intellectual property and Asian antimonopoly law. Her past publications include the Antitrust Summary Judgment Newsletter, State Antitrust Practice & Statutes Series (California chapter), 2000 Antitrust Law Developments Review (Intellectual Property chapter), and the 2005 Antitrust Law Developments Review (International chapter).

Ms. Fuyuno received her J.D. in 1997 from Columbia Law School and her undergraduate degree from Stanford University in 1993. She is admitted to practice in California and is also admitted to practice in Japan as a Gaikokuho Jimu Bengoshi (Licensed Foreign Law Specialist). She is a member of Daini Tokyo Bar Association.