

Thomas D. Fina
Partner
Howrey LLP

Tom Fina is a partner in the firm's Government Antitrust Practice Group and specializes in mergers and acquisitions, antitrust audits and antitrust investigations. He has guided more than 100 transactions through the U.S. and international antitrust merger review process, appearing before the U.S. Department of Justice and Federal Trade Commission representing 3M, PepsiCo, Inc., Cooper Industries, Inc., Electronic Data Systems Corp., Baker Hughes Incorporated, National Oilwell Varco, Varco International and Cooper Cameron Corporation. Mr. Fina has also appeared before the Competition Directorate of the European Commission, the Office of Fair Trading (UK) and the Norwegian Competition Authority. Mr. Fina has represented numerous companies in antitrust audits, internal investigations and in designing and implementing antitrust compliance programs. He has also represented companies in criminal grand jury investigations involving medical services, sulfuric acid, metal containers, petroleum drill bits, molded door skins and industrial diamonds, and has represented corporations and trade associations in civil non-merger investigations in aluminum manufacturing, aluminum processing, float glass, insurance, hazardous waste disposal, trade association activities and athletic shoes.