

Dear Colleagues:

Perhaps the most important decision made by the Section each year is determination by the Nominating Committee about the future Officers and Council Members of the Section. This year's Nominating Committee, chaired by Joseph Angland, included: Andrea M. Agathoklis, Ray V. Hartwell, III, Milton A. Marquis, and Gary Zanfagna.

In accordance with their obligations under the Section's bylaws, they have submitted the following report. We thank them for their thoughtful deliberations on behalf of the Section, and offer our congratulations to the very deserving members of the Section's leadership who have been nominated to serve as Officers and Council members.

The Committee has unanimously nominated the following members of the Section for the positions and terms shown below:

Officers:

Vice Chair (2009-2010):

Richard M. Steuer, New York, NY

Committee Officer (2009-2012):

Brian R. Henry, Atlanta, GA

International Officer (2009-2011):

Theodore Voorhees, Jr. Washington, DC

Program Officer (2009-2011):

Bernard A. Nigro, Washington, DC

Secretary and Communications Officer (2009-2010):

Howard Feller, Richmond, VA

Section Delegate (2009-2012):

Christopher B. Hockett, Menlo Park, CA

Council Members (Terms Ending in 2012):

Andrew I. Gavil, Washington, DC

Deborah Platt Majoras, Cincinnati, OH

Douglas C. Ross, Seattle, WA

Patrick S. Thompson, San Francisco, CA

Mark D. Whitener, Washington, DC

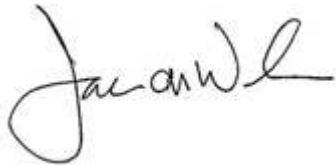

Members, Advisory Board on Section Reserves:

Patricia A. Conners, Tallahassee, FL (2009-2012)

Leslie C. Overton, Washington, DC (2009-2012)

Pursuant to the Section's bylaws, the Officer and Council candidates will be placed in nomination for the offices and terms listed above, to be voted on at the Section's Business Meeting at the August 2009 Annual Meeting of the American Bar Association in Chicago, IL. The individuals selected by the Nominating Committee for the Advisory Board on Section Reserves will automatically begin their terms at the close of the ABA Annual Meeting.

Sincerely,

Jim Wilson

Chair, Section of Antitrust Law
