This is to confirm that the undersigned has agreed to participate in the American Bar Association program described above.

As part of its continuing legal education efforts, the ABA occasionally records its programs and makes those recordings, and/or edited transcriptions thereof, available to its members and other professionals interested in the topics being covered. We are therefore requesting your permission to record, edit, transcribe, duplicate, distribute and perform your presentation delivered at this program, in any and all sound and visual media, throughout the world.

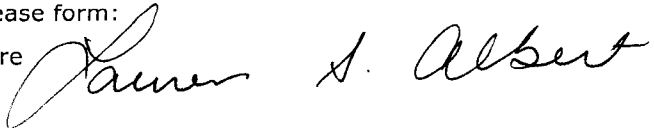

As a condition of publication and for no monetary compensation, we further request the nonexclusive right and license to reproduce, distribute, and sell any written material submitted in connection with your oral presentation as part of a course book or any other publication published under the auspices of the ABA.

You also grant the ABA the right to use your name and voice, and, if we so choose, your photograph and biography, in connection with the presentation and the written materials. We shall have the right to edit the transcript of your presentation, provided the edited version is submitted to you for comment.

You warrant that your presentation and any written material you submit are original, that their publication will not infringe on the rights of others, and that you have full power to grant this license. Should your presentation or written materials require permission for use by the ABA, you agree to obtain that permission from the copyright proprietor.

You reserve all rights not granted above. This document will benefit the ABA, its successors, assigns, licensees and contractors.

I hereby consent to the use of my presentation as described and agree with the provisions of this release form:
