

Steven J. Cernak

Steven J. Cernak is an attorney with the Marketing and Trade Regulation Section of the General Motors Corporation Legal Staff. He has practiced antitrust and trade regulation law for GM since 1989 and serves as lead counsel for GM's Service Operations. Mr. Cernak has managed GM's responses to lemon law and breach of warranty lawsuits across the United States since 1999. Mr. Cernak has written and lectured on various antitrust topics including Hart-Scott-Rodino, similar premerger notifications of other countries and other international competition law issues. He is a member of the American Bar Association and Chair of the Trade Associations Committee of the Antitrust Section of the ABA. He is a former member of the Council of the State Bar of Michigan Antitrust, Franchising and Trade Regulation Section. He is the Chair of the Access to Justice Committee of the Detroit Metropolitan Bar Association and assisted in the founding of the Detroit Legal Services Clinic. He was awarded the 2001 John W. Cumiskey Award by the State Bar of Michigan as that state's pro bono lawyer of the year. He earned his J.D. in 1989 from the University of Michigan Law School. He also has an A.B. and M.A. in Economics from the University of Michigan. He is admitted to the State Bar of Michigan.