INFORMATION

Attire

Continuing Legal Education

Over 50 CLE events are scheduled for March 29 – 31, 2006. The sessions are an educational presentation, usually in panel format, presented by one or more of the Section's committees.

Accreditation has been requested for this meeting for each session from every state that has a mandatory continuing legal education requirement for lawyers. While each state granting such credit makes its own determination as to the number of credit hours to be awarded for attendance, you will be eligible for MCLE credits, including ethics credits, for attending the 2006 Spring Meeting.

A Certificate of Attendance and detailed instructions regarding obtaining CLE credits will be included in your registration kit. The Antitrust Section has applied for CLE credit in all states where applicable. Attendees requesting New York or Delaware credits are required to sign-in and out of each CLE session. Attendees requesting Pennsylvania credits will be required to pay CLE fees directly to the state of Pennsylvania. You may call the American Bar Association Center for Continuing Legal Education at 312.988.6217, beginning three weeks prior to the start of the meeting, with questions regarding the number of credit hours available at each program.

Course Materials

Course materials are included in your registration fee. Course materials for each CLE session, supplied to the Section office prior to the meeting will be compiled onto CD Roms and provided to each registrant. Additional copies may be purchased at a cost of $150.00 each.

Antitrust Fundamentals will kick-off the meeting at 8:45 am – 11:45 am, on Wednesday, March 29, 2006 in Salons I and II. The Antitrust Fundamentals materials are not included in your meeting registration fee; however they are available for purchase using the registration form. Vouchers for pre-ordered Antitrust Fundamentals course materials will be included in the registration kit that you pick up upon check-in.
