Kathleen M. Beasley

kathleen.beasley@haynesboone.com

Ms. Beasley has more than 14 years of experience in business litigation, antitrust, white collar criminal defense, internal corporate investigations, and SEC investigations.

Ms. Beasley's recent matters include:

- Successfully resolving, with no enforcement action, a multi-year investigation by the Securities and Exchange Commission into accounting practices of an international telecommunications wholesaler and certain of its officers and directors.
- Defending a Fortune 100 company in a multi-million dollar antitrust and business torts lawsuit in Texas state court.
- Representing numerous individuals in various investigations by the Securities and Exchange Commission, including accounting fraud and insider trading issues.
- The successful settlement of a proposed class action antitrust lawsuit involving price-fixing allegations against offshore drilling companies.
- Conducting an internal investigation of a foreign subsidiary of a multi-national corporation.
- Defending an international gaming corporation and its electronic benefits subsidiary in a challenge by the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice to a merger/acquisition.
- Achieving a summary judgment and dismissal of a wrongful death case against a Fortune 1000 producer of construction aggregates.

Ms. Beasley's recent speeches include:

- "Effective Corporate Compliance Programs," presented at the Texas Bar CLE Program "White Collar Crime for the Civil Practitioner."
- "Conducting Internal Investigations," presented at the Richardson Legal Officers Forum Seminar "Counseling the Board."
- "SEC Investigations," presented at the "Things That Go Bump In the Night" CLE seminar.

Ms. Beasley has also served as an adjunct Professor of Trial Advocacy at Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law, and as a coach of SMU Law School's National Trial Competition teams.
