

Michelle M. Burtis is a Director with LECG and the firm's Practice Director of the Mergers and Acquisitions Group. Dr. Burtis has extensive consulting and litigation experience in antitrust, mergers and acquisitions, intellectual property, business contract disputes and damage analyses. Dr. Burtis has provided economic analyses related to the competitive effects of mergers to the Federal Trade Commission, Justice Department and state attorney generals. She has testified as an expert witness and provided consulting advice regarding alleged horizontal conduct and vertical restraints in a wide range of industries. She has also provided analysis of potential damages in various types of litigation. In addition to industrial organization, Dr. Burtis specializes in econometrics and statistical methods applied to economic problems in complex business litigation. She has published articles related to antitrust and intellectual property issues. Prior to joining LECG in 1998, Dr. Burtis was a Vice President at Capital Economics.

Dr. Burtis received her Ph.D. from the University of Texas and her B.A. from the University of Colorado. She is a member of the American Economics Association.