

HOW TO GET THE MOST MCLE CREDITS ... (IF YOU ARE A NEW YORK LICENSED ATTORNEY)

2004 Antitrust Law Spring Meeting

March 31-April 2, 2004
ABA Course ID# 04367

ACCREDITATION IN NEW YORK

- Accredited Provider Status: The American Bar Association has been certified by the New York State Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Board as an Accredited Provider of continuing legal education in the State of New York as of April 15, 2001 through April 14, 2004
- Credit for this course or program: This course or program has been approved in accordance with the requirements of the New York State CLE Board for a maximum of the credits [and categories of credit imprinted on the face of the Certificate of Attendance for New York Licensed Attorneys Only].
- Newly Admitted New York licensed attorneys are those attorneys who commence the practice of law in New York during the first two years of admission to the Bar. Newly Admitted attorneys are permitted to earn CLE credit only by taking accredited transitional CLE courses or programs in traditional live classroom settings. (See New York CLE Board Regulations and Guidelines, for exceptions pertaining to specific exemptions, <http://courts.state.ny.us/Regsrev1.pdf>).
- New York Transitional CLE Courses: The American Bar Association's CLE activities designated at a "Basic" level of expertise and presented in traditional live classroom settings do meet the New York State CLE Board's definition of transitional CLE courses. (See New York CLE Board Regulations and Guidelines, page 2, <http://courts.state.ny.us/Regsrev1.pdf> which state that "Transitional ... courses are designed to help recent graduates and newly admitted attorneys establish a foundation in the practical skills, techniques and procedures essential to the practice of law.")
