What Not to Miss in Nashville: Late night live music anywhere. See, All The Rage, published weekly by The Tennessean (www.nashvillerrage.com) for your favorite type of music. (Over 120 venues listed weekly)

A Note of Encouragement/Welcome to Potential Attendees: When visiting Nashville one should revert to the 3rd year law student lifestyle; learn a little, take a taxi and stay out really late. This is one of the friendliest cities in America. Explore and have fun! It is very possible to be standing in some bar with a handful of other people and hear the most beautiful music you've ever heard.
