

Toni Rembe has been a partner with the law firm of Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP (formerly Pillsbury Madison & Sutro) from 1970 to 2005. She currently serves the firm as a senior advisor. She has served as managing partner of the firm's tax department and on its executive committee. Ms. Rembe is past president of the Commonwealth Club of California and of the American Conservatory Theater. She is a member of the National Theatre Council, and is currently president of the van Loben Sels Rembe/Rock Foundation. She serves on the boards of AT&T Inc. (formerly SBC Communications, Inc.), AEGON N.V. (a Dutch company), A.C.T., and the Commonwealth Club of California. She formerly served on the boards of Potlatch Corporation, Transamerica Corporation, Pacific Telesis, Safeco Corporation, APL Ltd., and Mills College.