

ABA Commission on Effective Criminal Sanctions

Presents

Collateral Consequences of a Criminal Proceeding

How Defenders Can Assist with Successful Reentry

June 13, 2008
1:00 pm – 4:30 pm
FREE TRAINING!!

The seminar will discuss how criminal records impact housing, employment, immigration, and social services in Baltimore City, and will provide the tools to incorporate consideration of collateral consequences into client representation.

The training seminar will be conducted in a two-part format. The initial session will provide general training on the importance of collateral consequences and how they affect a client's ability to exit the criminal justice system. The second part will provide individualized training for different groups of defenders, and will focus on the specific needs of the attorneys based upon the nature and content of their practice.
