

ABA Criminal Justice Section Member Benefits

The following are some of the benefits that you will receive if you join the Section:

- Four times a year, Criminal Justice Magazine brings you critical analyses of groundbreaking court decisions, legislation, and other developments that affect practice in the criminal justice field.
- Criminal Justice Section Newsletter offers news and valuable practice tips, including a special section on ethics and professionalism and advice for judges, prosecutors and defense attorneys. It is published three times per year.
- E-News provides monthly updates on Section activities and criminal justice happenings.
- CLE sessions provide training on current topics of interest by the country's leading criminal justice experts. Annual programs on anti-money laundering and white collar crime are supplemented by teleconferences and institutes on other subjects of interest to criminal justice professionals.
- Discounts on practice-related publications published throughout the year. See the enclosed Publication Order Form for more information about current titles.
- www.abanet.org/crimjust provides a wealth of information about the Section – policy initiatives, recommendations on current criminal law issues, publications, information on meetings and committee activities, an online Section directory and much more. You also can access email-based discussion groups managed by members of the Section.
- Committees and networking opportunities. Committee membership can help you stay on top of emerging practice issues, shape policy, and improve the criminal justice system, whether you only want to receive committee materials or take on a leadership role. You can view our list of committees at www.abanet.org/crimjust/committees.
