Program Chair: John Potter, Quinn Emanuel

These days crimes and criminal prosecutions span international borders and often the globe. What are the opportunities and obstacles faced by defense lawyers and the government as they try to gather evidence and build their cases? This panel will explore a number of legal issues peculiar to international criminal investigations and their defense, and discuss ways defense lawyers can use the laws and procedures of foreign countries to their advantage.

Panelists: Jerry Roth, Defense Counsel, Munger, Tolles & Olson, San Francisco
Leslie Caldwell, Defense Counsel, Morgan & Lewis, New York
Martha Boersch, Defense Counsel, Jones Day, San Francisco

Moderator: Miles Ehrlich, Ramsey & Ehrlich, Berkeley, CA
