

Publications from the ABA Section of Dispute Resolution

Mediation: A Path Back for the Lost Lawyer (Second Edition) By John Van Winkle (2005, 142 pages) $ _____
 PC: 4740058; $35, Section of Dispute Resolution members—$25
 Readers will find this book irresistible if they are interested in improving the lives of lawyers and the legal profession. The book traces how we moved from being a noble profession to being a billable hour-obsessed business and demonstrates how we can return the profession to a noble calling.

ADR Handbook for Judges Edited by Donna Stienstra and Susan Yates (2004, 520 pages) $ _____
$48, Section of Dispute Resolution members—$38, Court Personnel—$25
 This book presents the information that judges need at their fingertips if their court is considering developing or refining a court dispute resolution program. Each chapter focuses on the use of ADR in a particular type of case or a certain setting.

Manual for Legal Services and Pro Bono Mediation Programs By Joan Tobin (2004, 80 pages) $25 $ _____
 The manual provides governing boards, chief executives and mediation program administrators the tools to start new programs or to strengthen existing programs within pro bono community mediation and legal services agencies.

Federal Dispute Resolution: Using ADR with the U.S. Government By Jeffrey Senger (2004, 402 pages) $50, Order this book through John Wiley & Sons, www.wiley.com $ _____
 This book offers valuable information about the benefits of ADR, outlines the laws and regulations that govern the field, and gives practical advice on handling dispute resolution with the government.

Mediation Practice Guide: A Handbook for Resolving Business Disputes $ _____
 By Bennett G. Picker (Second Edition) (2003, 222 pages) PC: 4740056
$39, Section of Dispute Resolution members—$32
 This book has been widely acclaimed as an outstanding practical guide to mediation. This second edition is a revised and expanded version which provides an invaluable and straightforward understanding of key suitability, preparation and advocacy issues in mediation.

Dispute Resolution Ethics – A Comprehensive Guide $ _____
 Edited by Phyllis Bernard and Bryant Garth (2002, 520 pages) PC: 4740055
$49.95, Section of Dispute Resolution members—$39.95
 This book lays out the groundwork for dispute resolution ethics at a time when the public is clamoring for ethical behavior in all walks of private and professional life. The text was written by leading practitioners and academics in the dispute resolution field and contains extensive appendices with 15 documents.

Arbitration Now: Opportunities for Fairness, Process Renewal and Invigoration $ _____
 Edited by Paul Haagen (1999, 274 pages) PC: 4740052
$45, Section of Dispute Resolution members—$35

ADR Personalities and Practice Tips Edited by James Alfini and Eric Galton (1998, 264 pages) $ _____
 PC: 4740051; $45, Section of Dispute Resolution members—$35

Order Form: ABA Section of Dispute Resolution Publications

	Subtotal:	$ _____
Tax (DC 5.75%, IL 8.75%, MD 5%)		$ _____
Free shipping & handling charge if this form is used.	TOTAL:	$ _____

Name: _____ Tel. No. _____
 Org./Firm: _____
 Address: _____
 City/State/Zip/Country: _____

Please make check payable to "American Bar Association" and mail to:
ABA Section of Dispute Resolution, 740 15th St. NW, Washington DC 20005.
 Or pay with Credit Card: M/C,VISA, AE _____ Exp.: _____
 Signature: _____ Phone: _____
 and Fax to: 202-662-1683. Call 202-662-1680 for more information. See www.abanet.org/dispute.