Videotape of the 2001 National Representation in Mediation Competition Final Round

- This videotape captures the final round of the 2001 National Representation in Mediation Competition held in conjunction with the ABA Section of Dispute Resolution Annual Conference on April 26-28, 2001 in metro Washington, D.C. In the videotape, two teams of students role-play as lawyers and clients engaged in a mediation. Stephen Sawicki, Executive Director of American College of Civil Trial Mediators, serves as the mediator in the role-play. The videotape contains numerous examples of advocacy techniques, communication behaviors, and mediator skills. At the end of the role-play, both teams engage in self-critique and are also critiqued by a panel of three judges: Homer LaRue, Professor Howard University School of Law and past president, the Society for Professionals in Dispute Resolution; Jacqueline Nolan-Haley, Professor, Fordham Law School, past chair, American Association of Law Schools Section of Dispute Resolution; and Richard Chernick, ABA Section of Dispute Resolution Vice Chair-Elect.
