Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources

2008 FELLOWSHIPS IN ENVIRONMENTAL LAW Florida Application

The ABA Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources, in conjunction with participating not-for-profit organizations, state and local bar associations and various grants, will be sponsoring fellowships for eligible law students during the summer of 2008. The Fellowships in Environmental Law program is designed to encourage qualified law students to study and pursue careers in environmental law.

The Fellowship:

- $5,000 summer stipend (8-10 week internship) for work on legal matters for a government agency or public interest organization working in the fields of environmental, energy or resources law;

Eligibility:

- First or second year law students (and third year night students).
- Students from underprivileged and disadvantaged backgrounds, including, for example, those from low income or minority communities.

Fellowship Criteria:

- Interest in environmental issues;
- Academic record (undergraduate and law school);
- Outstanding personal qualities and leadership abilities;

Application Requirements:

- A completed application form;
- A resume;
- An undergraduate transcript;
- A law school transcript (except for first year law students);
- A two-page essay describing applicant's interest in environmental issues and reasons for wanting to participate in the Fellowship;
- Two (2) letters of recommendation

The Application and Attachments: Please provide detailed answers to the application questions and required attachments. The ABA Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources will maintain all information received from applicants in confidence but will share the information with the cosponsoring state entity and prospective employers.

Selection Criteria: ABA fellowships will be awarded primarily upon the applicant's essay, transcript, resume and application. Members of the selection committee will personally interview the most competitive candidates, to determine who will ultimately be selected to participate in the Fellowship.

Instructions: Please return completed applications along with the required documents to ABA Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources, c/o Anna Demkovic, Section Assistant, 321 N. Clark St., Chicago, IL 60610. Applications should be either typed or handwritten in block letters. Completed applications and all related documents must be postmarked by or emailed no later than March 5th, 2008. Successful applicants shall be contacted within several weeks after the application deadline.

Deadline: Completed applications and related documents must be postmarked by March 5th, 2008.
