

SAMPLE BIOGRAPHY

DANIEL J. PLAINE

Daniel J. Plaine is the manager of Steptoe & Johnson's Antitrust and International Trade Group in the firm's Washington, D.C. office. He practices international and corporate transactional law. He has worked extensively in matters involving international investment and trade, U.S. export controls, international trade disputes, and negotiations in the steel, automobile, textile, electronics, new materials and agricultural industries. He has also negotiated and structured a number of U.S. domestic and overseas acquisitions and joint ventures.

Mr. Plaine has written and lectured on legal topics relating primarily to U.S. regulations governing international trade and investment, the antitrust laws and the conduct of international litigation. He is a member of the American Bar Association's Section of Environment, Energy, and Resources, the American Society of International Law and the Washington Institute of Foreign Affairs.

He earned his J.D. in 1970 from Yale University, his LL.B. in 1967 from Cambridge University, and his B.A., Magna cum laude, in 1965 from Williams College, where he was Phi Beta Kappa. He is admitted to the bars of the District of Columbia, the Federal and D.C. Circuits and the U.S. Supreme Court.