1. California requires domicile as distinguished from residency for jurisdictional purposes.
2. Covenant Marriage Statutes establish specific grounds for divorce for covenant marriages.
3. Two years for covenant marriages.
4. No fault grounds only available in a jointly filed petition.
5. New York requires that the parties live separate and apart after the execution of a written separation agreement.
6. South Carolina's one-year residency requirement only applies where the Plaintiff is a resident of the state but the defendant is not. If both parties are residents of South Carolina, the durational requirement is three months.
