

Use the Family Law Passport for these Section Sponsored Programs

Marriage Redefined: Separate, Equal, or Somewhere in Between?

Friday, August 6, 2004, 2:00pm-5:00pm (Ticket Price: $50)

GEORGIA WORLD CONGRESS CENTER – Level 3, Room A305

Sponsored by the Section of Family Law

Co-Sponsored by General Practice, Solo and Small Firm Section; the Section of Individual Rights and Responsibilities; and Real Property Probate and Trust Law.

This program is a balanced presentation of the legal ramification of Same-Sex Marriages, Civil Unions, and Domestic Partnerships. The topics cover the exploding trends in this area as well as the historical and religious perspectives of marriage. The program will provide an overview of the federal, state, and local laws which would be impacted from the recognition of same-sex marriage, the status of the law as it stands in the United States and other countries, and the type of benefits being offered to the same-sex couples in the private and public sector.

Celebrity Divorce: The Good, The Bad, and the Value (Ticket Price: $50.00)

Saturday, August 7, 2004 (Ticket Price: $50.00)

Atlanta Room, 2nd Floor, JW Marriott Lenox

This program will discuss the difficulties presented when you are representing a celebrity client, or the spouse of a celebrity client, i.e. what is celebrity goodwill and how do you value it; how do you work with the client's proxy; how do you protect your client's reputation and public image and confidences while preparing your best case for trial; what do you do if there are kids; and how do you manage the media interest.

Tips and Techniques from the Family Law Trenches

Sunday, August 8, 2004 (Ticket Price: $50.00)

Phoenix Ballroom I/II, 2nd Floor, JW Marriott Lenox

This popular fast-moving program is comprised of five-minute hot tips, strategies and techniques shared by practitioners from across the country.