

Brussels 2008 Fall Meeting

ABA Section of International Law
Your Gateway to International Practice

September 23 - 27, 2008

The Hilton Brussels

What will Brussels 2008 offer?

- An exciting mix of a large number of cutting – edge programs with world class experts in a wide array of international law subjects providing valuable insights on important current developments.
- These programs will be organized into special tracks to assure that there is substantial content readily accessible to your specific area(s) of interest. Tracks to include international dispute resolution, international business law, and public international law, among others.
- Three top flight evening networking receptions so that you can discuss the latest legal, ethical and international issues with contemporaries from across the United States and around the world.
- Three elegant luncheons with prominent speakers.
- Focus on the hottest international law issues while earning an entire year's worth of CLE and CPD credits.
- Special programming for young lawyers.

Why you must attend

- Learn the latest from top experts and receive information that is relevant to your international law practice area.
- Enhance your knowledge while meeting and getting to know Section leaders at committee breakfast meetings and dinners.
- Network with the best and brightest international lawyers while experiencing the beautiful sites of Brussels at our ticketed receptions.
- Meet face to face with meeting sponsors.

For further information, visit www.abanet.org/intlaw

Your Gateway to International Practice

