

Dade County Bar Association (Midyear Meeting 1995)

RESOLVED, That the American Bar Association urges that the United States Government take special measures to protect the rights of Cuban and Haitian refugees being detained in camps under United States control, including due process, access to independent legal counsel, humanitarian living conditions and adequate medical care.

FURTHER RESOLVED, That United States lawyers be permitted to visit with any such refugee requesting legal counsel for the purposes of counseling them.