

Grappling with Government: A Multicultural Perspective on Securing Government Approvals for Transactions

MARIA ELISA GUALANDI VERRI

mverri@tozzinifreire.com.br

Maria Elisa has acquired a multidisciplinary view of the law throughout her career. She has distinguished herself in the area of contracts and draws on that experience in her work with corporate acquisitions. Maria Elisa has coordinated several important M&A transactions, mainly involving foreign companies investing in Brazil. She has also developed a wide experience in the overall coordination of services for companies, especially in contractual and corporate matters. At TozziniFreire Advogados, she is a partner in the Mergers and Acquisitions and Corporate Law practice groups. She is also a partner in Corporate Social Responsibility and Nonprofit Organizations group.