

Presented By:
American Bar Association
Judicial Division
National Conference of Specialized Court Judges

Free CLE*

2008 ABA Annual Meeting
New York Marriott Marquis
Chelsea, Empire Complex, 7th fl.
Saturday, August 9, 2008
10:30 AM—12:00 PM

Visit the ABA Annual Meeting
homepage to register:
<http://www.abanet.org/annual/2008/>

*You must be registered for the 2008 ABA Annual Meeting to attend this free program.

Military Litigants and Witnesses in Civilian Courts: Challenges for the Bench, Bar and Deployed Military Member

Moderator:

Hon. Pamila Brown
Ellicott City, MD

Speakers:

Patricia E. Apy, Esq.
Red Bank, NJ

Colonel Rodger A. Drew, Jr.
Washington, D.C.

John S. Odom, Jr., Esq.
Shreveport, LA

Judges and litigants are increasingly confronted with issues impacted by military activations and deployments: is service of process effective against a deployed military member? What happens when a military member is a critical witness in a civil or criminal proceeding? These and other topics will be explored by a panel consisting of military and civilian judges and practitioners.

Co-Sponsored by:

Coalition for Justice

Commission on Domestic Violence

General Practice, Solo & Small Firm Division

Government and Public Sector Lawyers Division

Standing Committee on Armed Forces Law

Standing Committee on Legal Assistance for Military Personnel

JUDICIAL DIVISION
National Conference of Specialized Court Judges