

ABA Law Practice Management Section Appoints Judge Herbert Dixon to ABA TECHSHOW® Planning Board

CHICAGO, May 22, 2007 – The American Bar Association Law Practice Management Section (LPM) has appointed Washington, D.C. Superior Court Judge Herbert B. Dixon Jr. to the ABA TECHSHOW Planning Board. Judge Dixon is co-chair of the ABA Judicial Division’s Court Technology Committee, senior judicial advisor to William & Mary School of Law’s Courtroom 21 Project, and a former chair of the National Conference of State Trial Judges. Additionally, Judge Dixon is a member of the American Law Institute – American Bar Association (ALI-ABA) Technology Advisory Panel and the Board of Directors of the Bar Association of the District of Columbia.

ABA TECHSHOW, an annual event sponsored by LPM, is known as “The World’s Premier Legal Technology Conference & EXPO.” ABA TECHSHOW 2007, the 21st annual event, was recently completed and consisted of over 2,000 registrants, and more than 130 vendor booths. The event offers three days of CLE programs with more than 65 experienced faculty, covers technological topics for the beginner legal tech to the advanced, and presents two days of exposition. ABA TECHSHOW 2008 is scheduled March 13 – 15, 2008 at the Hilton Chicago.

ABA LPM provides practical education and assistance to lawyers and firms in four core areas of the business of practicing law— marketing, management, technology and finance. In addition to ABA TECHSHOW, LPM produces an award-winning magazine, Law Practice, dedicated to the business of practicing law, conducts numerous other CLE conferences, and offers ABA Women Rainmakers to promote women attorneys in their career advancement.

With more than 413,000 members, the American Bar Association is the largest voluntary professional membership organization in the world. As the national voice of the legal profession, the ABA works to improve the administration of justice, promotes programs that assist lawyers and judges in their work, accredits law schools, provides continuing legal education, and works to build public understanding around the world of the importance of the rule of law in a democratic society.
