Professor Huckabee received his A.B., M.B.A., and J.D. from Gonzaga University in Spokane, WA. Commissioned in R.O.T.C. in 1974, he entered active duty in 1976. He received an LL.M. from The Judge Advocate General's School in Charlottesville, VA; an M.S. in Education from Jacksonville State University in Jacksonville, AL; an M.A. in Congressional Studies from The Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.; and an LL.M. from The George Washington University National Law Center in Washington, D.C.

Selected in 2000 by the Council for the International Exchange of Scholars and the U.S. Department of State to be a J. William Fulbright Scholar, Professor Huckabee served as a Senior Lecturer at the Jagiellonian University Center for American Studies in Krakow, Poland, while on active duty. He taught courses on the American Legal System, Civilian Control Over the Military, and Constitutional Law. He also lectured at the University of Silesia and the Economics University of Katowice. He is only the second Judge Advocate in history to be selected for a Fulbright Fellowship.

After serving 27 years as a Judge Advocate in the Regular Army, he became an Associate Professor of Business Law joining the faculty at the University of South Dakota School of Business in August 2003. The student body association recently selected him Professor of the Year for 2004, a rare honor after only his first year of teaching. The Dean appointed him Director of International Studies in January 2004. He was later appointed to a Dr. Clifford Graese/KMPG Peat Marwick Faculty fellowship for 2005-2006. In addition to other responsibilities, he became Chair, Department of Marketing, Management, and Law in 2006 supervising nine faculty.

He previously held a variety of legal positions as a Regular Army Judge Advocate including Deputy Staff Judge Advocate (Deputy General Counsel), Headquarters, First U.S. Army, Fort Gillem, Georgia, serving as Legal Advisor to the Dept. of Defense (DoD) Joint Task Force in support of the 2001 Presidential Inauguration, and Legal Advisor to the DoD Weapons of Mass Destruction Joint Task Force-East supporting the FBI and FEMA.

He also served as the Staff Judge Advocate (General Counsel), Fort Buchanan, Puerto Rico; in the Office of The Judge Advocate General, the Pentagon, as Chief, U.S. Army JAGC Recruiting Service, and earlier as Deputy Chief, Legal Assistance Division. While serving in the Pentagon, The Judge Advocate General selected him to represent the Army in performing a legislative drafting service revising the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act (50 U.S.C App. 501) for the U.S. House of Representatives; subsequently appointed Chair of the DoD Task Force, their completed draft became known as The Servicemembers Civil Relief Act, signed into law on Dec. 19, 2003, 50 USC App. 501-596.

Professor Huckabee served earlier as Deputy Staff Judge Advocate, Chemical and Military Police Centers, Fort McClellan, Alabama; Commander, USA Legal Services Activity, Korea; Administrative Law Attorney, Office of the Judge Advocate, United Nations Command and Eighth U.S. Army, Seoul, Korea. He also served for three years as an Associate Professor, in the Dept. of Law, at the U.S. Military Academy, West Point, New York. During an earlier assignment, he performed succeeding duties as Defense Counsel, Legal Assistance Attorney, Claims Judge Advocate, Prosecutor, and Officer in Charge of the Hanau Legal Center, Germany, appearing as counsel in over 200 trials.

Within the American Bar Association, he has served as a member of the Standing Committee on Legal Assistance for Military Personnel (LAMP) and Editor of The Lamplighter, 1992-1995; Chair, Military Law Committee, General Practice, Solo & Small Firm Section, 1996-1999, 2001-2002; member of the Election Law Advisory Commission, 2001-2002; Council Member, Government and Public Sector Lawyers Division, 1995-1998; Council Member, General Practice, Solo & Small Firm Section, 1998-2002, and member of the Publications Board and Editorial Board of GP Solo Magazine, and Special Issue Editor in 2001. In 2003 he was appointed by President Dennis Archer to the Presidential Workgroup on Protecting Servicemembers Civil Rights. He was again appointed to the Standing Committee on Legal Assistance for Military Personnel in 2004.

Since 1988, Professor Huckabee has served as Vice President of the Gonzaga University School of Law Board of Advisors. In addition, he served as Vice Chair of the Law School Capital Building Campaign from 1991-2001.

The School of Business awarded him the School's 2004 Great Teaching Prizes among 34 faculty for the Best Theoretical Class, the Best Large Class, and the Best Undergraduate Outstanding Undergraduate Core/Required Teacher. He again was awarded the School's 2005 Great Teaching Prizes for the Best Outstanding Theoretical Teacher, Outstanding Teacher with Class Size of 21 or Larger, and Outstanding Undergraduate Core/Required Teacher. In 2004 he was selected as the Professor of the Year by the University of South Dakota Student Body Association.
