

JUDGE ADVOCATE MEMBERSHIP OFFER

Did you know that membership in the American Bar Association is free for recently licensed Judge Advocates?

If you are currently an active-duty Judge Advocate and have been licensed to practice law for five years or less, you are eligible for a free ABA membership.* If you are not eligible, but know someone who is, please pass this valuable offer along!

With your free ABA membership, you will enjoy these member benefits and services:

- Participation in ABA member groups and programs geared toward military and government lawyers and the practice challenges they face
- Career transition programming, access to ABA Career Counsel resources, including resumé and interview tips, job listings and articles
- Online and in-person networking opportunities
- Continuing Legal Education courses on a range of topics with many format options to choose from: online, live/in-person, teleconference, webcast and more
- ABA Journal and eReport, books, magazines, and newsletters, and the e-newsletter, Your ABA
- Legislative and governmental advocacy on issues of importance to the legal profession and the ABA, including many issues in support of military lawyers and servicemembers
- Opportunities to serve others through law-related and public service initiatives

To join the ABA for free, go to www.abanet.org/join/jag

*If you are a Judge Advocate, have been licensed for five years or less, and have already paid your ABA membership dues for 2008-2009, contact the ABA Service Center at 800-285-2221 to have your membership record updated to reflect your current status and to inquire about a refund.
