

Rules and Regulations of the State Bar of California Pertaining to Lawyer Referral Services

Rule 17. Fees Charged by a Lawyer Referral Service

17.1 A Lawyer Referral Service may require that:

(a) Each panel member pay to the Lawyer Referral Service a registration fee, "referral" or "percentage" fee (computed on a percentage basis or otherwise), or other like participating fee, or any two or more of such fees, as a condition of panel memberships, provided that such membership fees are reasonable and do not discourage widespread attorney membership;

(b) Each panel member pay the Lawyer Referral Service a referral, initial consultation or similar fee, or any two or more of such fees, as a condition of referral; provided, however, that no Lawyer Referral Service may require any fee that is, or any combination of fees that are, either in conflict with statutory or other legal provisions for the award of attorney fees or unreasonable, whether those fees be required of applicants, panel members or both. A Lawyer Referral Service is prohibited from charging a combination of fees which increases the client's cost for legal services beyond that which he or she would normally pay, or decreases the quantity or quality of services which he or she would otherwise receive, absent involvement of the Lawyer Referral Service.

17.2 The income generated by a non-profit Lawyer Referral Service shall be used only to pay reasonable operating expenses of the Service and/or to fund programmatic public service activities of the Service or its sponsoring entity, including the delivery of pro bono legal services.
