

2009 Annual Meeting of Access to Justice Chairs

Peer State/Topic Breakout Groups 1-2:15 p.m.

North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia

Moderator/Resource: Judge Lora Livingston, formerly Texas ATJ Commission
Duval Room

Tennessee and West Virginia

Moderator/Resource: Deborah Hankinson, Texas ATJ Commission
St. Johns Room

Wyoming

Moderator/Resource: John Tull, JAT Associates
Pinellas Room

Deep South

Alabama, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi
Moderator: Ted Hosp, Alabama ATJ Commission
Lake Room

Mountain States and Hawaii

Colorado, Montana, Nevada, New Mexico, Hawaii
Moderator: Fred Baumann, Colorado ATJ Commission
Hillsborough Room

Northeast ATJ Commissions

District of Columbia, Maryland, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Maine, Vermont
Moderator: Justice Jim Duggan, New Hampshire ATJ Commission
Sarasota Room

Why ATJ? What Access to Justice Commissions Have Accomplished

Kentucky, Indiana, and other states interested in creating an ATJ commission or in learning more about the model

Leaders from two states with Access to Justice Commissions will discuss how those entities have made a difference and why a formal structure has proven to be effective.
Moderator/Resources: Justice Jess Dickinson, Mississippi ATJ Commission; Jon Asher, Colorado ATJ Commission

Osceola Room

Larger States Suffering from Major Funding Losses: Planning Beyond the Crisis

When you are in the middle of a funding crisis, it can be hard to focus on anything else. This session will provide a forum for sharing ideas about how best to maintain your momentum toward long-term goals.

Moderator: Judge Steve Austin, California ATJ Commission
Dade Room