

AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION
SECTION OF LEGAL EDUCATION AND ADMISSIONS TO THE BAR
REPORT TO THE HOUSE OF DELEGATES

Recommendation

1 RESOLVED, That the American Bar Association House of Delegates concurs in the
2 action of the Council of the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar in
3 adopting Interpretation 302-10 concerning providing opportunities for law student
4 participation in pro bono activities as an addition to the Standards for Approval of Law
5 Schools and the Interpretations of the Standards dated August 2006.

Interpretation 302-10:

Each law school is encouraged to be creative in developing substantial opportunities for student participation in pro bono activities. Pro bono opportunities should involve the rendering of meaningful service to persons of limited means or to organizations that serve such persons. While law school pro bono programs should generally involve law-related services, pro bono programs that involve meaningful services that are not law-related also may be included within the law school's overall program of pro bono opportunities. Law-related pro bono opportunities need not be structured to accomplish any of the professional skills training required by Standard 302(a)(4). While most existing law school pro bono programs include only activities for which students do not receive academic credit, Standard 302(b)(2) does not preclude the inclusion of credit-granting activities within a law school's overall program of pro bono opportunities.
