Lessons from the Lost and Found Lawyers:

How to Achieve a Successful Career Transition that Really Works for You

Tuesday, March 25, 2008
12:00-2:00 p.m.

Presented by: YLS Executive Council
Special thanks to: CBA/YLS Career Assistance Committee, CBA Alliance for Women, Women's Bar Association of Illinois, and the National Association of Women Lawyers

Program will be held at the CBA Building,
321 S. Plymouth Ct., Chicago, IL 60604

Most CBA Seminars are also Webcast live (as well as archived) at the West LegalEdcenter. Visit www.chicagobar.org/cle.html for more information and to register for Webcast programs.

The CBA is now an accredited provider of CLE by the Illinois MCLE Board. Remember to bring your ARDC card or number to live seminars to receive MCLE credit.

At any time in your career you may feel a sense of ambivalence or doubt about whether you are in the right career, headed in the right direction with your career, or wonder how to plan for your career future. This presentation is designed to address these issues and to help lawyers to plan for a successful and realistic career transition that really works for them. It will include practical information about how to do-it-yourself as well as when to realize that you need outside help to achieve a successful career transition.

ABOUT THE PRESENTER:

Sheila Nielsen, M.S.W., J.D., Nielsen Career Consulting

Sheila Nielsen has been a career counselor working almost exclusively with lawyers for the past 20 years. She has counseled and coached over 2500 attorneys to date.
