NAWL Networking Reception benefiting: The Bottomless Closet

Sponsor: LexisNexis®

Start NAWL's Annual festivities by making a difference! Join old friends and make new ones at NAWL's Networking Reception benefiting The Bottomless Closet. Space is limited so register early!

Simply put a few gently used fashion accessories—business appropriate shoes, scarves, jewelry, purses—in your suitcase. Then bring them to the event and use them to accessorize suits provided by LexisNexis. Enjoy the company of your fellow NAWL colleagues while helping to give women returning to work a fashionable “leg up.”

Please register at www.nawl.org.

For more information, please go to www.nawl.org.

About NAWL

The National Association of Women Lawyers (NAWL) is a national voluntary legal professional organization devoted to advancing the interests of women lawyers and women's legal rights. Founded in 1899, the Association is the oldest women's bar association in the country, and has served as an active voice for the concerns of women in the legal profession and as an educational and advocacy forum.

NAWL's recent activities and accomplishments include:

- The annual General Counsel Institute, now in its fourth year, dedicated to helping in-house counsel excel at the highest levels
- The annual NAWL Survey, now in its third year, tracks important and unprecedented data in law firms about women's advancement
- "From Backpack to Briefcase," a program aimed at helping law students transition from law school to the workplace
- A national mentoring program that pairs experienced lawyers with law students and young practitioners from around the country
- "Ready to On-Ramp?," a program designed to help women who have left practice return to the workplace
- "From Theory to Action: Advancing Women Leaders in Law Firms," a Summit conference held with general counsel, managing partners and leading practitioners to devise action steps for retaining and advancing women
- Amicus support in the United States Supreme Court on issues of concern to women
- The continuing series, "Taking Charge of Your Career," designed to provide the skills women lawyers need to reach leadership positions
- Publication of cutting-edge articles in the Women Lawyers Journal
- Publication of the Eighth Edition of the National Directory of Women Lawyers and Women-Owned Law Firms, designed to assist in-house counsel to locate female lawyers and to assist lawyers with referring legal work

Please take a moment to join the National Association of Women Lawyers. NAWL also welcomes membership of individuals, law firms, corporate legal departments, law schools and bar associations.

Join online at www.nawl.org.
