

2004 National Law-Related Education Leadership Seminar
National Constitution Center * Philadelphia, Pennsylvania * January 15-17, 2004

Fact Sheet

Fact: This is the 23rd National Law-Related Education Leadership Seminar conducted by the American Bar Association.

Fact: The seminar will be held at the National Constitution Center and the Sheraton Society Hill Hotel in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, January 15-17, 2004

Fact: Participants for the seminar include K-12 classroom teachers, lawyers, judges, LRE project directors, LRE curriculum developers, Social Studies curriculum supervisors, K-12 administrators, teacher educators, and pre-service teachers.

Fact: The $125.00 registration fee for the conference is non-refundable and must accompany the registration form. Registrations submitted without this fee will be considered incomplete.

Fact: Conference participants will have free admission to tour the National Constitution Center on Saturday afternoon beginning at 2:00 p.m.

Fact: For your convenience, all of the forms in this package are available electronically at <http://www.abanet.org/publiced/conference/lre04.html>

Fact: Notification of acceptance of workshop applications will be sent to you by e-mail. All workshop participants must register for the conference.

Fact: All registration materials should be returned to the ABA by Friday, December 19, 2003.

Fact: Please contact the conference coordinator listed below if you have questions or concerns.

Jane Moisant
American Bar Association
Division for Public Education
541 N. Fairbanks Ct.
Chicago, Illinois 60611-3314
Tel. 312/988-5729
Fax 312/988-5494
Email: moisantj@staff.abanet.org