

Schedule B REVISED 1/29/03

Activities with an asterisk (*) will require computer lab/online time.

They must be posted by the deadline to enable students in other schools to complete the next scheduled activity in a timely manner.

Activity	Completion/Due Date
1. Orientation	Between Feb. 3-7, 2003
2. Pretest	Between Feb. 3-7, 2003
3. Group Work Class Profile	Between Feb. 3-7, 2003
Lesson: When May Speech be Limited and/or Introduce Research Topic	Between Feb. 10-14, 2003
5. What is Online Civil Discussion	Between Feb. 10-14, 2003
*6. Reading and Writing About Fahrenheit 451	POST BY Feb. 21, 2003
*7. Reading What Others Have Written About Fahrenheit 541/ Holding Civil Discussion Online	STUDENTS POST/HOLD DISCUSSION BETWEEN Feb. 22-Mar. 2, 2003 [Duration of this activity should be one week only]
8. Evaluating Web Sites	To be determined by you
[Research underway for activity 9	Feb. 22-Mar. 2, 2003]
	[Research for activity 9 NO ONLINE WEB CONFERENCING Mar. 3-13, 2003] after students post activity 9, discussion resumes.]

9. Original Student Research

STUDENTS POST BY Mar. 14, 2003

10. Learning from the Original Student Research of Others/Civil Discussion

STUDENTS POST/HOLD DISCUSSION Mar. 15-23, 2003

[Focus of student work throughout remainder of summit should be final projects, legal and policy expert activities, assessment, however discussion of research may continue as complement to these activities]

[Students work on final class projects

Mar. 15-27, 2003]

11. Brainstorming Questions for Legal/Policy Experts

POST by Mar. 19, 2003

12. Reading Answers of Legal/Policy Experts

To be determined by you

13. Final Class Projects

POST by Mar. 28, 2003

14. Assessment

Posttest

Self-Reflection

Complete/submit by April 4, 2003

POST by April 4, 2003