

True/False Test on Juries

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Over 90 percent of all cases never come before a jury. | T | F |
| 2. Juries never impose sentences after reaching verdicts. | T | F |
| 3. Women may because excluded from jury duty solely because of their sex. | T | F |
| 4. A lawyer can keep someone from serving on a jury based on a hunch or for no reason at all. | T | F |
| 5. It is constitutional for a lawyer to use peremptory challenges to keep members of certain races, as well as members of a particular gender, off of a jury. | T | F |
| 6. All federal juries require unanimous votes. | T | F |
| 7. Judges can be called for jury duty. | T | F |
| 8. The Constitution guarantees you the right to a jury trial only in criminal cases. | T | F |
| 9. States do not require unanimous verdicts in certain cases. | T | F |
| 10. In most cases, judges and juries disagree on the verdict. | T | F |

This presentation (an outreach strategy based on a true-false quiz) is reprinted from an article by Julie Van Camp, "Courts at the Crossroads," that originally appeared in the ABA magazine Update on Law-Related Education.