

Ellen Yost

Ellen G. Yost, Partner, Fragomen, Del Rey, Bernsen & Loewy, LLP., is a member of the New York State Bar and of the Balie te Brussel (the Flemish Bar in Brussels). Ms. Yost practices in New York City in the field of U.S. business immigration law, primarily for Canadian and European companies and individuals.

She represents the American Bar Association at the U.N. Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC) in Geneva and in that capacity has followed the work of the Global Commission on International Migration and subsequent international discussions on migration. Ms. Yost is a member of the ABA's Commission on Immigration and Co-Chair of the U.N. and International Institutions Coordinating Committee of the Section of International Law. She was a member of that Section's Council, and has chaired the Section's Immigration and Nationality Law and Canadian Law Committees. Ms. Yost currently is a member of the Council on International Affairs of the Association of the Bar of the City of New York. She also is President of the Working Group on Immigration and Nationality Law of the Union International des Avocats (UIA). With the assistance of an ABA grant, Ms. Yost founded the Pro Bono Immigration Project of the Bar Association of Erie County to represent indigent aliens detained at the Federal Detention Facility at Batavia, NY.

Ms. Yost is a member of the American, New York State, Canadian and International Bar Associations and of the American Immigration Lawyers Association. A frequent lecturer and author on Canada-US business immigration and global immigration, she is listed in the International Who's Who of Corporate Immigration Attorneys. Ms. Yost is a graduate of Mount Holyoke College and of the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Law where she was a member of the Law Review.