

Jason N. Golub

Mr. Golub's practice focuses on securities regulatory investigations, examinations and actions; internal corporate investigations; and civil litigation. He has experience in a wide range of SEC enforcement matters. Mr. Golub has represented financial institutions, public companies and major investment banks in investigations and examinations into regulatory compliance, corporate governance, as well as securities class actions and multi-agency federal securities investigations. He has worked on matters involving options backdating investigation, IPO allocation, options trading and other securities allocations, proprietary trading investigations, front running, and market timing. He also has advised clients with regard to improving policies and procedures for participating in class actions and on fiduciary duty to investors. Mr. Golub has an active pro bono practice that focuses on political asylum cases before the United States Immigration Court. He has represented clients from Africa, Iraq and Colombia in political asylum proceedings. Mr. Golub is admitted to practice in the state of New York, the Commonwealth of Massachusetts and before the First Circuit Court of Appeals, the District Court of Massachusetts, the Southern District of New York, and the State Courts of Massachusetts and New York. He is a member of the New York State Bar Association, the Massachusetts State Bar Association and the Boston Bar Association.