

Neil S. Dornbaum

Neil Dornbaum is a partner in Dornbaum & Peregoy, Newark, NJ, which is considered to be one of the preeminent specialty law firms in the State of New Jersey, with a practice limited to immigration and nationality matters. Dornbaum & Peregoy has provided prompt and expert advice on immigration and nationality law to numerous Fortune 500 companies, corporate employers in engineering, financial, pharmaceutical, telecommunications, as well as emerging businesses within high tech industries. The firm's emphasis is on employment based immigration. Dornbaum & Peregoy enjoys a national reputation and regularly and expertly handles complex matters nationwide. The firm has achieved Martindale-Hubbell's highest rating for legal ability and ethical standards and is listed in "The Bar Register of Preeminent Lawyers ", 1994-Present, under Immigration Law. This listing is limited to the top 3% of law firms that have received Martindale-Hubbell's highest rating. This rating is earned by only 11% of U.S. Lawyers. The rating is based on anonymous peer review questionnaires. Dornbaum & Peregoy is one of only a select limited number of law firms in New Jersey with a practice limited to Immigration and Nationality Law to receive this honor.

Neil Dornbaum writes and lectures nationally on various aspects of Immigration law practice for NJICLE, Federal Bar, ABA and AILA. He serves as NJICLE Program Chair/Course book editor for Advanced Immigration Law Issues for Attorneys, Human Resource Personnel and In House Counsel and the Annual Immigration Law Conference. He is on the editorial board for Immigration Law Today and is a reviewer for Kurzban's Immigration Law Sourcebook. He has served as: Chair of AILA's New Jersey Chapter; the New Jersey State Bar Association's Immigration, Naturalization, and Americanism Section; and nationally as Chair of the ABA's General Practice Section, Immigration Committee. He has served as a liaison and currently as a Commissioner to the ABA's Commission on Immigration.
