

Real Property Valuation and Appraisals – The Real Estate Attorney’s Survival Guide

Mark D. Savin
Faegre & Benson LLP
Minneapolis

Scott J. Ruppert
Ruppert Appraisal & Consultation
Edina

TABLE OF CONTENTS

- I. THE ATTORNEY’S PERSPECTIVE..... 3
 - A. What is the purpose of the valuation? 3
 - B. Know exactly what it is that is being appraised..... 3
 - C. The Attorney must have a working understanding of the three traditional approaches to value. 3
 - D. Know the law applicable to the use of these approaches in the relevant jurisdiction..... 4
 - E. How to find potential appraisers. 4
 - F. What should the attorney look for in retaining an appraiser?..... 5
 - G. Specific issues for appraisers relating to loans from a lending institution..... 6
 - H. Specific issues for appraisers relating to litigation. 7
 - I. Working with the appraiser in a litigated matter..... 8
 - J. Special considerations in condemnation cases. 9
 - K. Special considerations in land use cases. 10
 - L. Tax court considerations in cases..... 11

- II. THE APPRAISER’S PERSPECTIVE..... 11
 - A. When engaging an appraiser, have a clear idea about the purpose and intended use of the appraisal..... 11
 - B. What steps does an appraiser typically take in conducting an appraisal? 13
 - C. Is the real estate expert the only expert that is needed for litigation and, in some instances, the preparation of a financing appraisal? 13
 - D. Is the appraiser licensed to do the appraisal assignment? What are the rules the appraiser must abide by?..... 14
 - E. What is the appraiser’s code of ethics and what are the statutory requirements of federal and state law?..... 16

F.	What are some examples of professional designations and which organizations sponsor them?	17
G.	How do appraisers estimate fees for financing or litigation appraisals?.....	18
H.	Which attributes displayed by attorneys positively influence the appraisal process, and which ones hinder it?.....	19
I.	In litigation cases, what mistakes are made in the selection of and interaction with the appraiser?	20
J.	In appraisals for financial institutions, what mistakes are made in the selection of an appraiser?	21
K.	Look for these characteristics in selecting a competent appraiser/witness.	21
L.	Ideas for attorneys to keep abreast of the appraisal industry.....	22
III.	WHAT TO DO WHEN THE PARTIES DON'T AGREE ABOUT VALUE: ARBITRATION AS A MEANS OF RESOLVING VALUATION DISPUTES.....	23
A.	In various instances the parties will provide for arbitration as a required means of determining the property value. For example, arbitration clauses are common in leases which specify that rent shall be at "fair market value." See Minnesota State Bar Association, 1999 Advanced Leasing CLE Materials, "The Problem of Fair Market Rent."	23
B.	In other instances parties who would otherwise litigate may choose arbitration so as to avoid the uncertainties that frequently accompany court proceedings involving real estate.	23
C.	Numerous methods and procedures for arbitration are available.....	23
D.	Qualifications for Arbitrators: Whom Do You Want As An Arbitrator?	24
IV.	WAYS TO MAKE THE APPRAISAL MORE PERSUASIVE TO THE FACT FINDER.....	25
	DEFINITIONS	29

NOTE: Bruce Malkerson, an Attorney with Malkerson, Gilliland & Martin, and Robert Strachota, an appraiser with Shenehon Company, Minneapolis, contributed to an earlier version of this outline which was presented in a prior CLE course. The authors wish to acknowledge their prior contribution.