LEADERSHIP DIRECTORY

Substantive Committees

Alternative Dispute Resolution

Develops training opportunities and provides a forum for lawyers interested in arbitration, mediation and other forms of dispute resolution.

Elder Law

Studies the options and problems connected with retirement planning, housing, guardianships, long-term care planning, Medicare and Medicaid, working with senior clients and their families and end-of-life decision-making.

Estate Planning

Identifies key issues related to preparing estate plans and communicates comments relating to issues to Division members.

Ethics and Professionalism

Gathers and disseminates information, and prepares articles for Division publications, on ethical and professionalism issues and concerns that are of particular interest in senior lawyers.

Family Issues

Identifies and advises on issues of concern to seniors such as generational conflicts, second or late marriages and divorces, and grandparents' visitation rights.

Health and Fitness

Compiles and disseminates information on physical and mental health issues of special interest to seniors and encourages hobbies and exercise regimens that members might find of interest for their own enjoyment and well-being.

International Issues

Encourages senior lawyers to become "involved" in international projects, e.g., participating with foreign lawyers in CLE programs, teaching abroad and, in partnership with the International Senior Lawyers Project in New York City, responding to requests from bars in developing countries to provide legal assistance on specific matters.

Investment Strategies

Produces articles and programs and provides an on-line forum for discussing investment alternatives and issues of interest to lawyers and their families, including investing for retirement, tax and insurance strategies at various stages of a legal career, and how to get the best investment advice.

Practicing Senior Lawyers

Develops and promotes publications, programs and projects which assist experienced lawyers in the continuation of full and part-time practice of law, including Of Counsel arrangements, and successful transition to new careers and/or retirement.

Senior Driving Issues

Explores laws and programs in an effort to assist Senior and their families and lawyers counseling Seniors with Driving Issues.

State and Local Bar Outreach

Promotes, supports and reports on activities and services of bar association senior lawyer groups at the national, state and local level.
