

Resources for Building Your Nonprofit Web Site*

I. GENERAL INFORMATION

1. <http://databases.si.umich.edu/cfdocs/community/Discussiondisplay.cfm> -A listing of discussion forums on the Community Networking Initiative site.
2. <http://www.americconnects.net/> -America Connects Consortium, a consortium of agencies working to improve Community Technology Centers.
3. <http://www.ctcnet.org/> -Community Technology Centers are centers where technology is made available to those that need it.
4. <http://www.netdaycompass.org/> -Net Day Compass, an education technology Web site with information on developing knowledge about technology.
5. <http://www.seniornet.org/php/> -SeniorNet is a nonprofit organization that educates and provide technology to older adults.
6. <http://www.techsoup.org/> -TechSoup.org, sponsored by CompuMentor, is a Web site filled with useful technology information and articles.
7. <http://www.coyotecom.com/database/nptech.html> -List of Internet resources compiled by Coyote Communications.
8. <http://www.library.wisc.edu/libraries/Memorial/grants/basics1.htm> -University of Wisconsin's list of select Internet resources for nonprofits.
9. <http://www.cfsc.org/nonprofits/map/links.htm> -The Management Assistance Project's list of Internet and nonprofit resources.
10. <http://www.igc.org/trc/> -Technology Resource Consortium, an umbrella organization that serves various nonprofit technology assistance organizations.

II. SOFTWARE INFORMATION

1. <http://www.communitytech.net/> -Software vendor specializing in human services software.
2. <http://www.compumentor.org/> -CompuMentor is a nonprofit technology organization that offers consulting, low-cost software, and online resources.

3. <http://www.ebase.org/> -Database software designed for nonprofits.
4. <http://download.cnet.com/> -Cnet.com, a place to download software.
5. <http://www.npinfotech.org/tnopsi/index.htm> -The Nonprofit Software Index is an organization that lists and reviews software designed especially for nonprofit agencies.
6. <http://www.npsoft.org/> -This agency, Npsoft.org, lists various software options for nonprofit agencies.
7. <http://www.compasspoint.org/enonprofit> -Guide to online software.

III. EQUIPMENT INFORMATION

1. <http://www.pnnonline.org/technology/computerrecycle1.cfm> –Online Nonprofit News that has nonprofit news and information about computer recycling.
2. <http://www.cristina.org/> -Nonprofit that makes computer technology available to people with disabilities and at-risk students. It is also an organization that receives used computers.
3. <http://www.giftsinkind.org> -Gifts in kind, a place to give and receive equipment and supplies.

IV. TECHNICAL RESOURCES AND INFORMATION

1. <http://ctdp.tripod.com/hardware/pc/begin/index.html> -Introduction to basic hardware terms.
2. <http://www.nonprofit-tech.org/> -Nonprofit Tech is a technology agency that specializes in providing training, consulting, and support to other nonprofit agencies.
3. <http://www.wpdfd.com/wpdres.htm> -Web Page Design for Designers, a Web page design site.
4. <http://www.w3.org/> -World Wide Web Consortium, a consortium of organizations dedicated to lead the development of Internet technologies.
5. <http://www.fund-online.com/alabook/links/resource.htm> -Web Developer’s Tool kit, a guide to writing HTML.
6. <http://www.coyotecom.com/tips.html> -Coyote Communications tips sheets.
7. <http://www.webmonkey.com> –Web monkey has tips and suggestions for everything from writing HTML to electronic commerce.

V. FUNDING INFORMATION

1. <http://www.socialecology.com/> -Social Ecology, an Application Service Provider (ASP) that designs and offers applications to nonprofits.
2. <http://www.benton.org/> -Benton Foundation, a foundation that communicates on behalf of the public interest.
3. <http://www.charityvillage.com/> -A large Web site concentrating on Canada and the resources available for nonprofit agencies, donors, and volunteers.
4. <http://databases.si.umich.edu/cfdocs/community/index.cfm> -Community Connector, a Web site that offers information to donors, community organizations, and students.
5. <http://www.lscopp.com/techsite/SitePages/grants2002.htm> -Technology Initiative Grants offered to Legal Services Corporation offices.
6. <http://www.technologygrantnews.com/> -Technology Grant News is a subscription newsletter with information about grants to fund nonprofit technology initiatives.
7. <http://philanthropy.com/free/resources/tresources.htm> -The Chronicle of Philanthropy's list of Internet resources.
8. http://www.networkforgood.org/npo/offsiteframe/index.html?siteURL=http%3A//www.communityfoundationlocator.com/search/index.cfm,referURL=http%3A//www.networkforgood.org/npo/fundraising/fund_resources/researchfund.html -Network for Good's Community Foundation Locator.
9. <http://www.philanthropysearch.com/fundraising.html> -PhilanthropySearch.com has a list of fundraising sources on their Web site.
10. <http://www.nonprofits.org/npofaq/06/01.html> -Internet Nonprofit Center has a list of general and funding Internet resources.
11. <http://www.webcharity.com/> -WebCharity.com, an online resource for donors and nonprofit organizations.
12. <http://www.fundsnetsservices.com/> -Fundsnetsservices.com is a general funding Web site with information regarding funding and grantwriting.
13. <http://www.networkforgood.org/npo/fundraising/> -Network for Good's information about fundraising.

VI. VOLUNTEER INFORMATION

1. <http://www.charityfocus.org/> -Charity Focus, a nonprofit that connects volunteers with opportunities to help nonprofit organizations with their technology issues.
2. <http://www.flatiron.org/> -Flatiron is a company that creates Web sites for nonprofits.
3. <http://www.icomm.ca/> -iComm, a nonprofit Internet Community Program that helps other nonprofit organizations with their technology needs.
4. <http://www.makingthenetwork.org/> -Making the Net Work, an organization that helps nonprofit agencies set up their online communities and Web sites.

VII. POLICY INFORMATION AND PROJECTS

1. <http://www.ntia.doc.gov/ntiahome/dn/index.html> -A site with information on how Americans use technology and the Internet.
2. <http://www.techrocks.org/> -Techrocks, a national consulting and training organization that helps nonprofits use technology.
3. <http://www.digitaldividenetwork.org/content/sections/index.cfm> -Digital Divide Network is an organization that works together with the Benton Foundation to provide information and updates on the digital divide issue.
4. <http://www.morino.org/> -The Morino Foundation, a nonprofit agency that researches the Internet and its impact on society.
5. <http://www.pewinternet.org/> -The Pew Internet & American Life Project, a project that funds research about the Internet's impact on children and American society.
6. <http://www.digitaldivide.org/> -DigitalDivide.org is a collaborative project that works on resolving the issue of the digital divide.
7. <http://www.ftc.gov/bcp/online/pubs/buspubs/dotcom/index.pdf> -Publication of the Federal Trade Commission discussing online advertising.

 These resources are not comprehensive and do not indicate recommendation, endorsement, or support by the American Bar Association or the Legal Technology Resource Center.

