Bill joined Exelon, one of the nation's largest public utilities and the owner of the largest fleet of nuclear plants in the country, in February 2002, as Vice President and Deputy General Counsel in charge of the Company's litigation. In March 2004, he was promoted to Senior Vice President, in January 2005 to Acting General Counsel, and in February 2006 to General Counsel. As General Counsel, Bill has responsibility for all of Exelon's legal affairs.

Prior to joining Exelon, Bill was a senior partner at Jenner & Block, specializing in complex civil and white-collar criminal litigation. While at Jenner & Block, Bill served on the Management Committee and, at various times, as Hiring Partner and chairperson of the firm's Pro Bono and Diversity committees. He is past President of the Chicago Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights Under Law, Inc., and past General Counsel to the Leadership Council for Metropolitan Open Communities. Bill is a 1980 graduate of the University of Chicago Law School, where he served on the Law Review and was elected to the Order of the Coif, and a 1976 graduate of Yale University.
