

Women in Law Leadership Academy

The Commission on Women is pleased to launch its first ever Women in Law Leadership Academy. The Academy's purpose is to empower women lawyers with less than ten years practice experience, to enhance their skills and learning, to motivate them to stay in the profession, and to instill in them the capacity to direct their own careers more effectively through mentors and networking. Please contact the Commission at 312/988-5715, www.abanet.org/women for registration materials.
